

Epsilon Phi Chapter

Epsilon Phi Chapter – McGill University – 1928

Arms – Argent, a martlet gules, and on a chief of second two dexter hands hand-in-hand in fess between the Greek capital letters Psi and Upsilon, the former on the dexter, the latter on the sinister, or. The coat bears a red martlet adapted from the McGill University coat of arms. The martlet is a mythical legless bird said never to land is here used to signify the high, never-ending flight of friendship. The dancette or zigzag line under the martlet is symbolic of the three mountains of Montreal.

Crest – on a wreath of argent and gules an owl argent

Motto – “Brotherly love helps us to succeed” as translated from the Greek; presented gules on a scroll argent