

Phi Beta Chapter

Phi Beta Chapter – College of William and Mary – 1984

Arms – Quarterly; first and fourth side, two dexter hands hand-in-hand in fess between the Greek letters Psi and Upsilon, the former in chief, the latter in base, or; second and third vert, a stylized Phi Beta Kappa key. Each key contains a diamond sable in the upper corner sinister and an open hand in the lower corner dexter. The center of each key contains the Greek letters Phi Beta. The stylized Phi Beta Kappa key represents the history of fraternities, as Phi Beta Kappa was the first Greek letter society and was founded at William and Mary. The colors reflect those of the University. The diamond and open hand are symbols of the enduring nature of friendship.

Crest – on a wreath of or and vert owl argent

Motto - “We are steadfast friends” as translated from the Greek; presented vert on a scroll argent
