112TH CONVENTION HELD IN GARDEN CITY

THE fourth wartime Convention of the Psi Upsilon Convention kept up the high attendance records set by its three predecessors, with representatives of 24 Chapters attending the annual function, which was held at the Garden City Hotel, Garden City, Long Island, New York, on Friday, June 1, 1945.

With undergraduate delegates the exception rather than the rule, the gathering consisted of 55 members of the Fraternity who were, regardless of their alumni or undergraduate status, united in their objective of preserving the continuity of the Fraternity by continuing unbroken its string of wartime conclaves. Officers and members of the Executive Council, headed by President Scott Turner, Phi '02, guided the seemingly effortless routine of the morning and afternoon business sessions. The annual meeting of the Alumni Association took place during the afternoon recess period.

The Convention adjourned at 7:45 in the evening, after which the brethren assembled for an informal dinner and an evening of Psi Upsilon songs.

Aside from the routine committee reports and the Chapter reports, which told of the situations in which our branches currently find themselves, one of the Convention highlights was the informal interim report given by Stephen G. Kent, Delta Delta '11, chairman of the committee created by the 1944 Convention to investigate the ways and means of reviving Chapters at the various colleges. While Brother Kent was careful to emphasize that the preliminary report was still being written, he did state that some of the subjects his committee was considering were the following:

Social relations with other fraternities and with social organizations in the non-fraternity group; reaching a balance of cooperation among all of the social groups on the campus; self-discipline, including by-laws to conform to all college requirements; activities, with special reference to the fact that "Hell Week" should not interfere with college work, and should be stripped of any activities that might affect individuals outside of the Fraternity; organized, calculated and efficient effort towards scholarship; promotion of education by the arousing of intellectual curiosity in the undergraduates; maintenance of Chapter libraries and encouragement of gifts of books from the alumni; forum meetings within the Chapter, organized on a voluntary basis for the discussion of various problems of an international nature; vocational guidance by alumni; alumni cooperation; and general objectives relative to the building of human values and high personal standards.

Interesting compilations from the reports of the Chapters included the information that there were about 168 undergraduate members active in 18 Chapters, with the Canadian Chapters in the best position for post-war operations, as their memberships are not nearly so depleted as are those of the American Chapters. Reports from the delegates brought forth the information that the inactive Chapters have in most cases a group of active alumni who are bridging the gap and serving as a nucleus to perpetuate the continuity of the various groups.

Highlights from the Annual Communication of the Executive Council to the Convention

Today the Executive Council, because of war-time conditions, is acting as host to a Convention for the third consecutive year. We cordially and fraternally welcome each delegate of our twenty-eight Chapters, and each other Brother present at this 103rd Convention of Psi Upsilon held in the 112th year of our Fraternity.

That it has been possible, in spite of the difficulties and inconveniences caused by the war, to maintain uninterrupted the sequence of our Conventions, shows the interest and loyalty of Chapters and individual Brothers, alike, and justifies a deep sense of satisfaction in the vitality and strength of Psi Upsilon.

PSI U PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

Rt. Rev. W. Blair Roberts, D.D., Beta Beta '05

By Kenneth G. Brill, Mu '07

ALTHOUGH this sketch discloses more concerning The Right Reverend William Blair Roberts, D.D. than does Who's Who, a sturdy biographer able to travel with him day and night in fair weather and through dust, rain, snow and sleet, by any means available and to spend the night wherever it found him, often with a saddle for a pillow, could have gathered material for a best seller.

Something could be done about the matter even now, if the Bishop could be induced to talk a little more about himself.

His father, The Reverend William Jackson Roberts, came to Detroit from Wales when a boy. Later he attended Trinity College and was a member of the Order of Beta Beta, which later became the Beta Beta Chapter. A classmate and close friend was Joseph Buffington, B.B. '75. His brother, The Reverend Paul Roberts, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral at Denver, was a member of Beta Beta '09.

The Bishop was initiated into Beta Beta in 1901 and upon graduation from Trinity entered Berkley Divinity School then at Middletown, from which he graduated in 1908 and was ordained Deacon in the Episcopal Church by Bishop Chauncey B. Brewster, Beta '68.

Perhaps he acquired his love of the west from the childhood years spent in New Mexico, but wherever acquired, upon his ordination he volunteered for missionary work in South Dakota. It showed his venturesome and pioneer spirit. A part of the Rosebud Indian Reservation had recently been opened by the Government to white settlement and he made his headquarters at the end of the railroad in the town of Dallas. Soon after his arrival, another section, Tripp County, directly to the west was opened and added to his "parish," which Bishop Hare had told him was to be "all out of doors."

Bishop Roberts

"... often with a saddle for a pillow."

The race for settling on the land, the laying out of the towns, the building of the scattered cabins, the Indian camps and the sights, sounds, excitement and romance of the old west were a part of his daily life while he traveled about on horseback and by horse and buggy.

When the Bishop went to South Dakota, conditions were as Smith describes them in his history of the State: "The officials of the town in order to secure money to cover necessary expenses during the emergencies, were too free in granting licenses for all sorts of games. The result was that the town became filled with crooks, bums, lawbreakers and scalawags of every description, all of whom apparently united to make as much money as they could out of everyone who came there to register. Soon stealings and holdups were numerous and all gambling games ran without hindrance. Finally the disorder and riot became so threatening that the officials were compelled to interfere to prevent the town being practically captured by the lawbreakers. The law-abiding citizens united, went to the hardware stores, took possession of all arms and promptly arrested forty-five crooks of all sorts and placed them in a bull-pen, which was guarded by 100 armed citizens; but as this did not seem to check the lawless proceedings they began the systematic work of hunting out the rascals in all parts of the town, scattering them from their haunts like rabbits from the sagebrush. Finally the lawbreakers were driven to one end of the town where they halted and threatened to shoot any citizen who should approach them. To circumvent any hostile act of this sort, the armed citizens promptly covered them with rifles, whereupon the lawbreakers drew back and lowered their weapons. They were informed by Mayor Berg that they must at once leave the town and the officials enforced this command by driving them a mile from the corporate limits. At this time forty-five of the worst ones were still under guard in the bull-pen. Upon reaching the distance of a mile the crooks suddenly began to break in all directions and rush back to town, firing as they ran, but immediately the battle commenced. . . . The authorities from this time forward enforced law and order as well as could be expected under the riotous proceedings."

The Bishop continued with his ever increasing duties until in the Summer of 1918, during the first World War, he was commissioned a chaplain in the United States Army and went directly to France where he was assigned to the 313 Engineers, serving with them until they were mustered out in June, 1919.

As great as they were, his religious duties were but a small part of his work with this regiment. There was no organized welfare work connected with his outfit and he traveled about securing for it cigarettes and what extras he could. After the armistice he established a canteen and about that time started a regimental newspaper printed on such German paper as was found in the villages where they were billeted. He was also in charge of a regimental school where they taught everything from simple English to mechanical engineering.

Upon his return, he was commissioned a chaplain in the Reserve Corps and holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. For two terms he was president of the South Dakota Reserve Officers Association and has been state chaplain of the American Legion.

Brother Roberts has been Bishop of South Dakota since 1931. In 1922, when he was consecrated Suffragan Bishop, he designed the seal which is upon his Episcopal Ring. A number of things are depicted, but in the center is engraved a diamond and as he says: "It is the Diamond of Psi Upsilon, probably the only one ever to be a part of a Bishop's seal."

To see him without his clerical vest and collar would not be surprising, but to see him without his Psi U pin would be cause for anxiety. It has been with him through many stirring times and is one of his most cherished possessions. He and Mrs. Roberts are delightful company and any way you take it, Bishop Roberts is a good Psi U.

Epsilon Man Wins Silver Star

The Navy Silver Star for gallantry in action in the Pacific has been awarded to Lieut. Comdr. Vard Stockton, Epsilon '28, former University of California football player.

The Navy citation stated the award was for:

"Conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in actions as assistant officer of a submarine during war patrol in enemy controlled Japanese waters in the Pacific area and carrying out his highly important duties with skill and courage.

"Lieutenant Commander Stockton ably assisted his commanding officer in the sinking or damaging of a large amount of Japanese shipping. His bravery, tenacity and fearless devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Rho Brother Decorated

Captain Laurance G. Wolfe, Rho '36, has returned to this country from the European theatre, and is stationed in the West. He received his captaincy in a battlefield promotion in Germany, and was awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in the same action. Earlier, he was wounded in action and awarded the Purple Heart.

Croix de Guerre to Col. Howley

Col. Frank Howley, Delta '25, has been awarded to Croix de Guerre for his service in administering the civil affairs of the Port of Cherbourg. Col. Howley was head of a joint American-British civil affairs team, which moved into Cherbourg with the invading forces last year and undertook to help Frenchmen run France again.

Pi Brother on Staff of Admiral Spruance

Lt. Robert Adams McDowell, Pi '40, has been appointed Assistant Flag Secretary on the staff of Admiral Spruance, Commander of the Fifth Fleet, thus bringing to a new high point one of the more interesting of the naval careers which we've had the opportunity of following. Leaving Syracuse in 1940, the Mouse went on to Harvard Law School where, by dint of the usual hard work and, one suspects, the exercise of magnetic personality, he managed to acquire a membership on the staff of the Law Review. He was thereupon seized by the Procurement Legal Division of the Navy and put to work in the Bureau of Ships where he spent about a year buried in the morass of legal problems created by the war. Tiring of Washington, he applied for sea duty, received the usual training at Fort Schuyler and at the Sound School in Key West and was assigned to duty in the Pacific aboard the 2100-ton Destroyer, U.S.S. Colahan, where he has served as "Sonar Officer" and, during the past eight months, Senior Watch Officer and Officer of the Deck at General Quarters. He was also Communications Officer for four months last winter and, until the announcement of his new job, held what he describes as "the rather meaningless title" of Tactical and Operations Officer and Navigator. His ship participated in the first air strikes on the Philippines, Formosa, Saigon, Iwo Jima, Tokyo, Honshu and Okinawa and in the Battle of Leyte Gulf.

Trubee Davison Is Now General

F. Trubee Davison, Beta '18, Assistant Secretary of War for Aviation from 1926 to 1932, has been promoted to the rank of Brigadier General at Washington. He is Special Assistant to H. H. Arnold, Commanding General of the U. S. Air Forces. General Davison has held the rank of colonel since the outbreak of World War II.

In 1917 Davison was a member of the aerial coast patrol and was severely injured in a plane crash. After World War I, he engaged in the practice of law and, from 1921 to 1926, served as a member of the New York State Assembly. In 1926 President Coolidge appointed him to the post of Assistant Secretary of War. In 1933 General Davison was appointed President of the American Museum of Natural History and held this post until 1941.

Mu Brother to Serve Red Cross

William W. Williamson, Mu '32, of 1994 Pinehurst Street, St. Paul, Minnesota, has arrived in Hawaii to serve the armed forces as an American Red Cross assistant field director. Before his Red Cross appointment, he was associated with the Cosby Wirth Manifold Book Co. in St. Paul.

Tau Men Serving the Nation

Captain Lafayette (Lafe) Weeks, '40, spent August at his home in Des Moines, Iowa, on furlough. He has returned from 35 missions as pilot of a B-29 bomber over the Japanese home islands. He wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, two battle stars and four oak leaf clusters. He flew his 35 missions between December 18 and July 3. Nine were over Tokyo itself, including the big fire raids on March 4 and 9. The two other Weeks brothers are in the Navy, Lt. Evert Weeks, Tau '34, and Lt. (j.g.) William Weeks, Tau '32.

Capt. Eli Eichelberger, '29, a medical officer living in York, Pa., tended battle casualties through the first days of his division's invasion of Cebu in an improvised operating room set up in the nave of a 300-year old cathedral, a short distance from the front lines. He and his associates endured eight days of ceaseless labor with as little as seven hours' sleep, all told. At one time a small band of infiltrating Japs came to within one hundred yards of the hospital. At another time bullets from strafing aircraft struck the cathedral walls. According to the division's commanding officer, this medical unit has not lost a single case that had any chance at all when it reached the hospital. Brother Eichelberger, now back in this country, recuperating from injuries, received a letter of commendation from his commanding officer and a unit citation.

Capt. Walter G. Moeling, 3rd, U.S.M.C. '41, was wounded at Okinawa in May. Several men with him were killed when an artillery shell exploded in a crater hole during the thick of the fighting near Naha. Walt was a member of the 6th Marines and was a veteran of the Guam campaign. When last heard from, Walt was in a Naval hospital on the West Coast, but expected soon to return to Philadelphia.

Sgt. Robert E. King, '46, has been riding motor patrol in Rome—"not a bad job at all." At the last writing Bob was stationed in the Disciplinary Training Center of the M.T.O., and was hoping for some M.P. duty.

Lt. Lon W. Jourdet, Jr., '46, was recently decorated with six Oak Leaf clusters, the Purple Heart, and other citations. He recently returned from overseas and has been at Atlantic City awaiting re-assignment. He graduated from Haverford School and was a Penn swimmer. He is the son of the former Red and Blue basketball coach. He made 35 missions over France, Belgium and Germany, his unit receiving the Presidential citation. In one of the flights over Nazi territory his bomber ran into heavy flak, the motor was blown out, but he escaped with an arm injury.

Staff Sgt. Theodore C. Merritt, '45, has received a citation "for meritorious service in combat" between February 20, 1945, and March 4, 1945, near Corona, Italy. He is a member of the 10th Mountain Division of the 87th Infantry, and has been overseas since December, 1944. He married Lois Beck last April. He was a graduate of Avon Old Farms School, entered the service in February, 1943, while a junior at Penn. Received training at Camp Hale, Colo., and Austin, Tex. Ted procured food, cooked, and brought hot food to troops while in the very thick of battle. When others would not volunteer he drove a jeep loaded with hot food and rations through heavy enemy artillery barrage in open sight of the enemy, then he back-packed the food to the men in their fox-holes. Another time when the company moved into newly won positions, he carried an immersion heater into an area raked by enemy mortar fire, so that the fighting personnel would have hot food.

Lt. John F. McCloskey, '42, Navy night-flying Hellcat pilot, is a two-year veteran in our Pacific fleet, almost constantly in action, including the bloody Tarawa.

Lt. A. Price Gehrke, '43, is executive officer of a Quartermaster Truck Company and has been in the thick of action in Belgium and Germany.

Captain Frank F. Boyle, '38, a two-year Pacific veteran, was wounded in the Philippines invasion and is reported recuperating in a Manila hospital.

Lt. Charles J. Koenig, Jr., '39, an officer since July, 1942, on the battleship Washington, has seen action in most of the Pacific naval battles.

Lt. (j.g.) William Dignan 3rd, '39, is commander of a LST boat which participated in the African campaign and the Normandy D-day invasion.

Lt. (j.g.) Victor M. Nussbaum, '41, who has completed two and a half years of sea duty, most of it on a battleship, is assigned to the tanker Rapidan.

An informal Psi U reunion on Guam brought together Lt. (j.g.) John Scott Neill, '36, Lt. (j.g.) Leighton Stadley, '30, and Charles T. Brown, Jr., sk 1/c, '39. Brother Neill is now on the staff of Admiral Nimitz in charge of mail.

Lt. Clifford C. Collings, Jr., USNR, '40, was married on April 7 to Miss Helen Cadwalader Pennock in the chapel of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Lt. (j.g.) James C. Morham, '43, now at a Navy base in the western Carolines, writes that Thomas A. Smith, '43, is on a minesweeper in the Pacific and that Lt. James C. Morgan, '43, is on an aircraft carrier.

Cpl. Joseph L. Pyle, '46, has recently been sent to India on detached service from Burma, where he continues in combat flying.

George S. Rohrer, '44, became a German prisoner of war last fall when his plane was apparently forced down in enemy territory. He was moved to a camp near Nuremburg or Munich when the Russians advanced to the original camp between Breslau and Berlin. He has probably been liberated at this writing.

Other Psi U's with the Colors

John F. X. O'Connor, Rho '36, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Commander and is serving as chief engineer of the seaplane tender U.S.S. Matagorda.

Lt. Arthur M. Sherman Jr., Beta Beta '38, recently returned to this country after a year's service with a Seabee battalion, is now Senior Chaplain at the Naval Armed Guard Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. His outfit took part in the Normandy invasion and put in a large part of the artificial harbor on Omaha Beach.

Captain Harold H. Emmons, Jr., Phi '33, of the Adjutant General's Department, is attached to the Headquarters of the Eighth Army in the Philippines.

Epsilon Men in the Armed Forces

Lt. (j.g.) Mead Kibbey, '42, was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal when his minesweeper was blown up by a mine off Cherbourg after the invasion of France. He returned to this country a year ago, and before returning to sea duty, was married to Miss Beverly Richards, of Sacramento. His best man was Fred D. Garner, '42, of Los Angeles.

PSI UPSILON SCENE

Xi Finances Reported to Alumni

A CRITICAL situation faces the Xi Chapter and, accordingly, a detailed study of the financial position has been made by a committee composed of Tad Jones, '11, Bo Cawley, '14, Pete Curts, Beta '05, Red Lagren, '13, Red Travis, '20, and Charley Stone, '13.

This committee rendered its report to the Board and the Xi Corporation on June 23, 1945. Its importance was immediately recognized, for the report clearly showed that the House would need funds to cover the cost of carrying overhead expenses in addition to the estimated income to be derived from a handful of undergraduate members. The report also brought out the need for expenditures necessary to the maintenance and improvement of the House.

As a result, it was decided that the sensible program was to raise the funds immediately. President Ted Smith, '93, appointed Bob Parsons, '22, and Henry Trundle, '21, to proceed with the serious task at hand. In 1942 and again in 1943 similar campaigns were successfully undertaken, and now in 1945 there is every reason to know that the Alumni will respond to the Xi's call for assistance.

Chicago Alumni Backing Rho

Bob Heald, Rho '11, has taken the lead in Chicago to raise a Fiftieth Anniversary debt retiring and rehabilitation fund for the Rho Chapter. Although it is too early for a complete report of the results, the Chicago Alumni are responding very well. When that campaign is completed, it is Brother Heald's plan to continue the program through the entire Rho Alumni group.

Retired from Active Service

Maj. John T. Stickney, Iota '36, formerly assigned to the Army Air Forces Eastern Flying Training Command, has been appointed Superintendent of Passenger Service of Eastern Air Lines, Inc. Maj. Stickney was commanding officer of the 44th Four-Engine Pilot Training Group at Lockbourne Army Air Base, Columbus, Ohio, when retired from active service in the Spring.

Capt. Ray Married Overseas

Capt. Chester Whitney Ray, Zeta '42, was married in September to Capt. Ursula Jean Barton of the Australia Women's Auxiliary Service, in Australia. Capt. Ray is the son of Mrs. Wyeth Elliott Ray of Road's End, Pawling, N.Y., and is one of a quartet of Psi U brothers, as well as a namesake of Dr. Chester F. S. Whitney, Delta '96, President of the Delta Corporation. Capt. Ray's brothers are: Wyeth C. Ray, Gamma '31, Donald Elliott Ray, Gamma '34, and Carl Putnam ("Mutt") Ray, Zeta '37, famous in Dartmouth's football annals. All four brothers are in the Armed Forces.

Past President of Delta Delta Married

Ensign Stephen G. Kent, Jr., U.S.N.R., Delta Delta '44, was married recently to Miss Deborah Deyo Spring, of Easton, Maryland. Ensign Kent is the son of Brother Stephen G. Kent, Delta Delta '11, one of the founders of the Delta Delta Chapter, and former Secretary of the Executive Council of Psi Upsilon. In his senior year at Williams, Ensign Kent was president of his Chapter.

Zeta Zeta Alumni News

The Alumni of Zeta Zeta met at a luncheon on July 26 at the Hotel Vancouver to honor Brother Harry T. Logan, Epsilon Phi '07, who was leaving for England to take an important post with Fairbridge Farm Schools. In a short address Brother Logan expressed the hope that his absence from the city would not be of long duration and that he would soon return to take up his association with the fraternity.

No other functions or meetings were held during the summer but, with the return to the city of so many of the brothers in the Service, many a small and cheerful reunion was held.

We were happy to welcome home the following brothers:

Lt. Col. Tom Brown, M.B.E., '32, arrived in Vancouver on August 17 and is well on the way to recovery from his wounds.

Flight Lt. Doug Cox, '32, arrived home in August and is at present awaiting his discharge in Vancouver.

Lt. Art Harper, R.C.N.V.R., '32, was home on leave in August but left for new duty about the middle of September.

Lt. Stu. Keate, R.C.N.V.R., '35, returned to the city on H.M.C.S. Uganda on August 10, 1945. Stu was on the Uganda while it was attached to the British Pacific Fleet.

F. O. Derek MacDermot, '41, is now discharged from the R.C.A.F. and living in Vancouver.

Capt. Bill Masterson, '28, was on leave in Vancouver in July and was able to attend the luncheon for Col. Logan. Bill is now with the Judge Advocate's General Staff in Ottawa.

Capt. Nelson Odlum, '35, has been home on leave after service in Holland and Belgium. He reported back to Shilo, Manitoba, in September.

Majors Don and Roger Odlum returned to the city on September 6 after service in the European theatre.

Flight-Lt. Allan Sweetman, R.C.A.F., '40, has returned from Montreal and is awaiting discharge in Vancouver.

Major General Victor W. Odlum, '03, is Canadian Ambassador to China and is at present resident in Chungking.

Major Doug Pollock, '30, is at present attached to the educational branch of the Canadian Army in England. Art Harper saw him recently in Glasgow.

Capt. Doug Telford, '28. Doug went overseas in November, 1944, and performed yeoman service in the military hospitals in England but still found time to study for his F.R.C.S. which was granted to him in July of this year.

Flight-Lt. Bob Telford, '44, is returning home to await his discharge. He plans to continue his medical course and become the third Dr. Telford in Zeta Zeta.

Fred Wallace, '38, left on September 1 as an officer on the S.S. Leaside Park. He is bound for Auckland, New Zealand, but hopes to be home some time in November.

Dr. W. Kaye Lamb, '27, librarian of U.B.C., assumed presidency of Pacific Northwest Library Association on September 5, 1945.

Iota Alumni Meet

The Iota Alumni Association held a pleasant and profitable meeting at the Iota Lodge on June 11, 1945. Walter T. Collins, '03, President; Leo Wertheimer, '99, Secretary, were re-elected and Vincent Harper, '26, was elected Treasurer. President Collins was able to announce that the debt on the Iota Lodge could be entirely paid off for the amount of the balance to Mrs. E. Malcolm Anderson, the wife of the late E. Malcolm Anderson, '14, to whom the note had originally been given. Upon receipt of the payment Mrs. Anderson returned it to the Iota Association for the purpose of establishing a fund in memory of her late husband.

Psi U's as Alumni

We hear from Wesleyan—Other reports requested

How important a part do Psi U's play in the alumni and chapter life of the various colleges where there is Psi U? In a general way we know it is very important, because our undergraduate brothers are carefully chosen, distinguish themselves in all branches of college activities, and afterwards have the devotion to give generously of time and effort to both college and fraternity.

The Editor has received from Henry C. Trundle, Xi '21, besides a carefully marked copy of the magazine, a set of statistics, which clearly indicate the activity of the Psi U's of Wesleyan, as taken from the January issue of the Wesleyan University Alumnus. In that highly personalized 52-page magazine, Psi U names appear at least 150 times, or an average of 3 to a page—not counting the 5 pages of closely printed names of men in the Service, which include many Xi brothers.

On the Editorial board of the Wesleyan Alumnus, numbering 13, three are Psi U's. Personal items are several: Edwin O. Smith, '93, re-elected for the 4th time to the Connecticut House of Representatives; Earl P. Stevenson, '16, the most recent addition to the Wesleyan Board of Trustees; Harold G. Travis, '20, Chairman of the Alumni Fund (to raise $100,000); Winfred B. Holton, Jr., '10, elected President of the Board of Trustees of the Navy Industrial Association; Albert Mann, Jr., '06, elected President of the Middletown Community Art Center. Six brothers are class secretaries; three are "Local Contractors for Servicemen"; several are officers of regional Alumni Clubs.

Anecdotes, referring to stalwarts of "the then and now" appear on several pages of the Wesleyan Alumnus. Among those prominently

PSI UPSILON OF PHILADELPHIA OUTING

On June 2, some forty of the Brothers, representing eleven Chapters, turned out for the annual outing of the Psi Upsilon Club of Philadelphia. The photograph shows some of those in attendance posed on the steps of the C. L. Seiler, Tau '08, home at St. Davids. In the picture Brother Seiler sits on the bottom step. Ranged above him are (left to right) First row: W. A. Cornelius, Jr., Iota '24; W. A. Cornelius, Eta '89; G. B. Harris, Tau '88; J. D. Spaeth, Tau '88; C. F. Luce, Gamma '30.

Second row: G. I. Bodine, Xi '06; N. E. Brown, Upsilon '28; Dean Hale, Iota '04; D. F. Torrey, Tau '14, Pierre Brosseau, Omega '23.

Third row: W. P. Harbeson, Tau '06; G. P. Kynett, Xi '18; G. C. Crebbin, Upsilon '28; W. A. Wieder-sheim, Tau '10; D. G. Baird, Eta '14.

mentioned are the beloved Psi U's, Caleb T. Winchester, '69, Lewis E. Gordon, '94, Olin F. McCormick, '07, Roger W. Bacon, '10, Walter H. Brown, '10.

Well, of course, we knew it all the time. But the 1937 Class Notes in listing a half dozen names of men met in the Pacific area, say "It is worth noting that the last four (names) are all Psi U's. Gee!! How they stick together."

This report from the Xi invites similar reports from the other Chapters. THE DIAMOND would welcome such assistance in making its pages more vividly personal.

Pledge Manuals Wanted

The question has been raised whether any of our Chapters have manuals or rule-books to be used by pledges in informing themselves regarding the Fraternity and their duties relating to it. Will each Chapter which has such a set of rules be good enough to send a copy to Headquarters?

NAMES IN THE NEWS

Justice Roberts Resigns

SUPREME court Justice Owen J. Roberts, Tau '95, recently resigned the position of honor and esteem that he has held since his nomination in 1930 by President Herbert Hoover. His fame has been acclaimed by all and his absence from that high tribunal will be keenly felt by many. During the past years, Justice Roberts has been known as the Court's Number One Dissenter, for he has fought gallantly to interpret the intention and means of the United States Constitution. On May 2, Justice Roberts celebrated his seventieth birthday.

MacLeish Resigns as Assistant Secretary of State

President Truman recently accepted the resignation of Assistant Secretary of State, Archibald MacLeish, thereby giving James P. Byrnes, Secretary of State, a free hand in replacing personnel and remodeling the government's foreign office. Mr. MacLeish, Beta '15, formerly Librarian of Congress, had served as assistant secretary in charge of public and cultural relations since shortly after Edward R. Stettinius Jr. became Secretary of State in 1945. Mr. MacLeish greatly expanded the State Department's contact with the general public through radio programs, booklets and speeches by department officials.

Three years ago, we realized world affairs were such that our Fraternity faced serious difficulties, which might heavily tax our ingenuity and adaptability. Since then, the institution of the college fraternity has passed through many crises in various parts of the United States, but, with large-scale fighting finished for the present in Europe, the atmosphere is clearing and the future of fraternities looks more encouraging.

As for Psi Upsilon, we have suffered along with the rest, but, on the whole, we have come through in good shape thus far, and face the future with renewed confidence.

With the advice and assistance of the Executive Council, our Alumni in all parts of the country have rallied to the aid of their respective chapters; in some cases, where undergraduates were lacking, they took over the active operations of chapter organizations, thus keeping the local flames alight.

We feel pleased and gratified with the way we have come through the difficulties and dangers of the past few years. If proof were needed as to the loyalty of our alumni, and the inherent strength of our Society, we have had it in abundance.

Many problems difficult of solution lie ahead of us, but the worst seems over, and we expect a steady improvement in the affairs of our chapters, perhaps with a return to something like normal in a couple of years. There will be no complete reestablishment of the status of before the war, but if we continue to work together unselfishly and harmoniously, Psi Upsilon should emerge from this ordeal stronger and better than ever. This objective should be kept in mind constantly by all those privileged to have membership in our Brotherhood.

Yours in the Bonds,

THE COMMITTEE OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OF PSI UPSILON ON THE ANNUAL COMMUNICATION TO THE 1945 CONVENTION.

Dave Boone Says:*

The papers say Henry Stimson ain't sure what he will do now that he has retired as Secretary of War. But I wish he'd go on the radio and tell us what vitamins he takes. At an age when most men can't work up energy enough to fight anybody but the nurse, Henry directed the greatest fight in history, taking on two nations at once.

On any list of great Americans of the last half century you have got to put him high up. He was so good both political parties had to use him on their team.

Being Secretary of War was a return engagement. He'd held that away back under Bill Taft. He'd been Secretary of State, Governor-General of the Philippines, utility third baseman and most everything else of a helpful nature.

The test of a public leader is his record for seeing ahead. And Henry, away back in 1931 when the Japs took Manchuria, called the turn and drew a perfect picture of what lay ahead through the cowardice of the major nations.

Henry is not far from 80. He's earned a rest. But even at 90 he will be a handy man to have around in case of trouble.

* Reprinted by permission from The New York Sun, September 20, 1945. On the same day, The Sun said editorially of Secretary Stimson (Beta '88): "The retirement of Secretary Stimson is crowned by congratulations won by his determination to carry his job through to a finish. His record of able service in the Cabinets of four Presidents—two Republican and two Democratic—is notable indeed."

THE CHAPTERS SPEAK

XI

Wesleyan University

The semester opened here at Wesleyan with a wave of heat and an incoming freshman class larger than any since that of a year ago. Some sixty men rushed, and a quota of six men was set for each house. The Xi took five good men: Hunter Finch, Charles Stone, Charles Loving, William Youry, and Dan Robertson. The Xi had lost three of its Navy men: Zeke McCurdy, Caesar Roberts, and Jeep Justema, who are now at the St. Albans Naval Hospital. Officers for the summer term are now: President, Tad Smith, Vice-President, Scrib Vickrey, and Secretary, Dype Wilcox. The Junior and Sophomore Vice Presidents are respectively Bosco Hopkins and Pup Kent. There are now ten undergraduate members in the house and the five above mentioned freshmen, whom we are planning to initiate on the fifteenth of September. Earlier this term we initiated Herbert David Sabel into the house, and he is now an active member of the chapter. Thus by the end of the term we expect to have fifteen brothers in the house, a smaller number than some houses on campus, but since the V-12 is moving out in October and since we have more civilians than most of the houses, we should have a head start on the others when the Winter term begins. Besides those civilians already here, we also expect to have back Brothers Bunky Baker, Jigger Bell, Tex Cotins, Pink Purcell, and Pledge Harry Lee. We should also have two or three men back from the armed forces.

Of course, at this writing, the V-12 unit at Wesleyan is facing the same problem as all units everywhere. What does the Government intend to do with us? One day we hear that the ROTC at Brown is signing up for six years and the next, word comes through that Yale is signing its discharge papers. If the V-12 is finally discharged, Psi U will have a few more members than it even dares hope for at the moment.

Many of the Xi men are now engaged in extracurricular activities. Tad Smith and Scrib Vickrey are on the soccer team, and Dan Robertson is a second-string end on the football team. We are practically monopolizing the literary field here with Tad Smith as editor of the Argus, Bunky Baker and Hap Barnes as editor and business manager respectively of the Olla Podrida, and Baron Rager as business manager of the Cardinal.

In addition, the student committees on campus include practically every member of the house. Thus Psi U is upholding its ancient traditions in proper style.

All in all, the future looks bright for the Xi, and as Wesleyan reverts to its peacetime program, we expect Psi U to be at the top as she always has been.

IOTA

Kenyon College

The active Chapter is pleased to present to the alumni two Brothers who were initiated on May 5th by the Iota. They are Rodney Elton Harris, 405 North Gay Street, Mount Vernon, Ohio, and Donald Willard Ropa, 2117 Sherman Blvd., Fort Wayne, Indiana. The initiation was held on the afternoon of Saturday, May 5, 1945. The formal ceremonies were followed by a buffet supper at the Lodge, singing Down the Path, and a beer party in the undercroft of Middle Kenyon. At the beer party the Iota was joined by the Betas and the Deltas (who were initiating the same evening). We were also honored by the presence of Mr. Merrill E. Harris, Rodney's father.

At the end of the spring term (May 12) John Edwin Gulick, '48, dropped out of college for the short term, and William Thomas Bulger, '48, having become eighteen, left college to enter the Army. At the end of the short term (June 20), Howard Charles Parks, '48, also became eighteen, and expected to enter the armed forces. All of these men were loyal Chapter-members and hard working officers, and each of them made a distinct contribution to the welfare and the success of the Chapter. They left with our best wishes for their happiness and safety and for their speedy return to Kenyon.

During the period February 20 to June 20, the Chapter maintained its strength in relation both to other social groups on the Hill and to its own numerical strength in past times. We began this period with seven active members. This number was brought up to ten by the return to college of Brother Balantine on April 1, and by the pledging and subsequent initiating of Brothers Harris and Ropa. But through the withdrawals of Brothers Gulick and Bulger we ended this period with only eight men. We began the summer term with seven active members.

The officers elected for the short term and for the summer term were: President, Robert W. Ballantine, '48, 1st Vice President, John A. Shortridge, '47, 2nd Vice President, Howard C. Parks, '48, Recording Secretary, William A. Cole, '48, Corresponding Secretary, Stewart E. Perry, '48, Treasurer, W. Ray Ashford, '17, Steward of the Household, Donald W. Ropa, '49, Assistant to Steward, Rodney E. Harris, '49, and Intramural Manager, William A. Cole, '48.

PHI University of Michigan

Due to the loss of several brothers at the end of the Spring Term, the Phi has only six active members on campus this summer. Three men in the Navy have left. William Jones was commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve, David Christy and Donald Hagerman were transferred for further training. In addition to these, Jay Huntington graduated at the end of the Spring Term, and Herbert and Jack Campbell were inducted into the Army Air Forces.

Even with such a small Chapter, the Phi has been carrying on rushing functions and at the present time we have two pledges, Roger Smith and David Tittle. Rushing is rather a difficult task with so few members and without the use of the Chapter House, but we want to express our sincere thanks to the Alumni who have helped us with rushing by sending recommendations to us.

The University is still using our Chapter House as a freshman dormitory, but we hope to have it back for our own use in the near future. The end of the war, and the resulting influx of brothers who have returned to complete their college training, will help us to open the Chapter House and operate normally again.

An election of officers was held at the end of last term, with the following results: President, Dogan Arthur; Vice President and Recording Secretary, David Wagner; Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary, Charles Lauritsen.

Fraternities have been becoming more and more active at Michigan during the last few months, and at present there are about twenty-five active on campus. Of these, approximately ten are living in their Chapter Houses. It is to be expected that the number of fraternity men on campus will rise sharply in the coming months, and fraternity activities should be almost back to normal in a short time. We hope that our next communication will state that we are back in our house again, but only concentrated effort on the part of both undergraduate members and Alumni will realize this hope.

PI Syracuse University

At the conclusion of the Spring term the boys of the Pi can look back on a very successful and happy session. There were three pledges initiated at the end of the semester. They were William Floyd Cummins, Bruce Conklin Follett and Samuel David Bingham. Many fine parties were held when Brothers came back on furlough. The Pi won in the Interfraternity Sing contest, despite keen competition, and in so doing added another cup to their collection of trophies. The winning song was one written by a recent active Brother, Al Hardigan. The song, "Brothers All," will certainly go down as one of the best.

Through graduation we lost two Brothers, John Edward Leibfried, Jr. and John Robert Weiss, who did much to keep the Chapter going during struggling days and who are now working in New York City and Akron, Ohio, respectively. The Chapter wishes them the best of luck in their new positions.

Despite the good times had by the boys, they all achieved at least fair scholastic ratings. The accumulative house average is probably as good, if not better, than the other houses on campus.

Arthur Charles Friedel, Jr., has been elected President and Robert Emmet Cadigan, Jr., Secretary.

The Summer session was not too exciting for Psi Upsilon since the house was closed and many of the boys were not in school. For the ones who were in school and were located in the city, credit is due for a noble attempt at rushing. The Pi pledged one man, Wilfred P. Miller, Jr. We felt that there was a wonderful effort on the part of all during rushing and that circumstances limited us greatly.

The three men who were present at Garden City in June reported a wonderful experience. Arthur Charles Friedel, Jr., Donald Richard Eshenour and Robert Emmet Cadigan, Jr., were very proud to be present and happy to hear that so many chapters were able to function well despite the war. The whole chapter takes this opportunity to extend to all the Chapters the best wishes for the coming years and especially to the Sigma Chapter at Brown.

We lost James Henry Abbot to the Navy this summer. Jim was a wonderful Brother and we hope he gets back in the near future.

Due to the very serious attitude we all had toward our school work fun-making was somewhat slighted this summer. However, we found time for a great party at Green Lake, and on the announcement of the termination of the war we were all able to take time out to thank God and to do a bit of celebrating.

This fall the doors of the Pi will be open, glistening with the brightness of the long needed coat of paint. There will be eleven boys back, which is seven more than the nucleus of a year ago. We are looking forward to a rosy year. The rushing should be one hundred percent better since the predicted enrollment will be more like a peacetime enrollment.

TAU University of Pennsylvania

Since the last issue of THE DIAMOND, the chapter has added several more pages to its long and hallowed history. This addition includes the results of two rushing seasons, the return of veteran brothers to Pennsylvania, the activities of the Brothers and a gradual resumption to normalcy.

Following the rushing season held last April, six men were pledged and later initiated at the end of May. The new brothers are Robert P. Borges of Germantown, Pa.; Robert M. Lee of Greenwich, Conn.; Jay A. Le Fevre of New Paltz, N. Y.; John F. Lester of Philadelphia, Pa.; Lawrence E. Mortlock of Bronxville, N. Y.; and Spencer S. Shannon, Jr., of Bedford, Pa. Three of these men, Borges, Lee and Le Fevre, had only recently been discharged from the armed forces. Another interesting note about the initiation was the fact that Brother Spencer Shannon, Tau '15, was on hand to initiate his son, Spencer, Jr.

Shortly after the pledging an election was held in which Brother Schraishuhn was elected Head of the House. Brother Gordon and Brother Scully were reelected Treasurer and Recording Secretary respectively. These men were in office until July when Brother Schraishuhn was graduated with honors from the Towne School. The new officers elected were: Head of the House, Brother Fitch; First Vice President, Brother Gordon; Treasurer, Brother Kiefer; Recording Secretary, Brother Woods; House Chairman, Brother Scully; and Social Chairman, Brother Carr.

The summer months found the Chapter with few civilian Brothers since the majority had taken a leave of absence for the summer or at least for the first eight weeks. Nevertheless, many of them returned for the rushing in August. Two men were pledged as a result of the rushing and were initiated on September 15. They were Edgar N. Adams of Media, Pa.; and John Penniwell of Upper Darby, Pa. Although it could not be admitted, that rushing was up to par by any means, the brothers resolved that the fall rushing week would be more successful.

The beginning of the second week was heralded by the return of the first veteran to the active Tau—Brother Robert Morton, '46. With his return came news that Brothers John Roos and George Rohrer would probably be back in November, and Brother Hartung hopes to be with us again in February. This will bring the number of brothers who are veterans to nine.

The return of these men certainly comes at an opportune time for the house as five men will leave at the end of this semester. Four are members of the N.R.O.T.C. and as such will get their commissions. These men are Brothers Fitch, Ward, Gordon and Schaff. Brother Fitch and Brother Scully will get their degrees.

A welcome visitor during the past few months was Brother Hank Musser, former Head of the House and Penn football player, who was on leave after having served on the Bunker Hill during its attack in the Pacific. For his heroism in keeping the engines of the ship in operating order during the battle he was awarded the Navy Cross.

As usual the Brothers have been active in campus activities. Brothers Woods and Fitch were elected to the honorary Naval organization, The Quarter Deck Society. Brother Rumberger, our Interfraternity Council Representative, was elected to the position of Secretary-Treasurer of the group. Brother Scully who is now assistant editor of the campus paper was one of the students active in securing the revival of The Record, the class yearbook. He is on the Executive Board and will serve as Chairman of the Senior Editorial Board. Brother Rumberger was selected for the Fraternity Editor. Brother Scully and Brother Rumberger are also active in the new campus radio station that is being established. Brother Scully is serving as Publicity and Promotion Director while Brother Rumberger will sing in the Mask and Wig Glee Broadcasts. Incidentally both men were reelected to the Board of Governors of the Club for the coming year. The traditional Junior weekend in November will find two brothers aiding; Brother Scully is co-editor of a magazine for the occasion while Brother Borges will serve on the Entertainment Committee. Brother Leser won the Philadelphia Public Parks Tennis Tournament for which he received a gold medal.

For the first time in several years the Brothers will be occupying the House during the football season. The Brothers would like to extend an invitation to all who may attend games at Franklin Field to stop at the House to renew acquaintances and meet the new brothers.

THETA THETA University of Washington

Since the University of Washington took over our house as a women's residence hall, the Theta Theta has been inactive on the campus, having only 3 actives in school and no place to meet. The alumni around Seattle kept the Psi U spirit alive through monthly dinners held at the Seattle College Club.

At the beginning of the summer, however, it was announced that the University was going to turn the House back to the Chapter, and it would be ready to occupy when school started this fall. This stimulated interest in rushing, and within a week of this announcement we could point with pride to our first pledge in over a year, Tom Gleed, who has more than lived up to our expectations with the interest he has taken in the House. As soon as word got around that the Chapter was again opening its doors and starting to rush men, Brothers we had not seen since they went into the service, some as far back as four years ago, began appearing to help us with rushing. At the first party of the summer, held at Brother Bill Pratt's home on Mercer Island, we saw the following brothers in service: Peter Way, Bill Flagg, Bill Rutter, Jack Briggs, Cy Heffernan and Bruce Benz, who was recently discharged from the Marines and will be back in school this fall. We also enjoyed meeting Brother Welton Henderson of the Epsilon Nu, an excellent representative of our newest Chapter. He was in Seattle on a leave from Farragut Naval Training Station, and just happened to get here in time to join us.

A second rushing party held at Tom Gleed's home brought out more alumni, including two father-son combinations, Clayton Bolinger and his son John, a navy flyer, and Rusty Callow and his son, Gordon, home on a furlough from the Army Air Force.

These activities brought us two more pledges, Dick Goodwin, from Chehalis, and Clinton Merrill, from Yakima. The fact that we could step in after more than a year of inactivity and rush successfully for the best material against houses who have remained open is gratifying evidence of the good name Psi U had on the campus before the war. It is our plan to continue taking only the highest calibre men, worthy to carry on our Chapter.

Beginning in September, regular Chapter meetings will be held in the House, and a pledge training program will be started. There will not be many men at first, but they make up in enthusiasm and spirit what they lack in numbers. The Theta Theta has once again resumed the full scale privileges and responsibilities of an active Chapter.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETINGS

Summary of What Transpired at Recent Sessions

Meeting of April 3, 1945

The Executive Council met in New York on April 3, 1945; President Scott Turner presided. Brothers Turner, Burleigh, Burton, Collins, Fales, Ham, Richards, Weed and Woolman were present. Brother Stephen G. Kent, Chairman of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity Committee on Post-War Activities, was also present.

The Secretary stated that he had received from President Turner a communication from the Iota Chapter relative to Federal taxes. It was suggested that the letter be turned over to Brother Rosenberry, who has handled similar questions.

The President read a letter from John E. Foster, Zeta '23, relative to finances and post-war problems of the Zeta Chapter and the Zeta Alumni Association. Brother Burleigh commented.

The President read a letter from Brother Frederick S. Benson, Pi '34, suggesting that a survey be made of the post-war attitude of the administration of each college or university in which there is a Psi Upsilon Chapter. The President stated that he would advise Brother Benson that such survey could best be made by the alumni of each individual Chapter, and that, in fact, such surveys had already been made by the alumni of certain of our Chapters and had been submitted by these alumni to the Executive Council.

The President called attention to a recent communication from the Editors of THE DIAMOND relative to high-ranking Army officers who are members of Psi Upsilon. Brother Ham suggested an addition to the list of Generals.

The President commented on Mrs. Glenn Frank's article in the Woman's Home Companion entitled "Heartaches on the Campus." It was brought out that she had been expelled from her sorority as a result. Brother Ham commented that some of the criticisms made by Mrs. Frank were supported by sorority activities in certain of women's colleges. He pointed out that sororities were much less democratic in many instances, than fraternities.

A recent issue of the Kenyon Alumni News was called to the attention of the Council, with particular reference to the fact that Psi Upsilon appeared to be so well represented therein.

The President brought up for discussion the article entitled "Psi U Personality of the Month," which appears regularly in THE DIAMOND. It was the consensus of opinion that the editors of THE DIAMOND should refer the subject of these articles to the appropriate alumni group prior to publication. The President called for ideas as to Brothers who would be featured in this article in the future, and some suggestions were made by members of the Council.

The President presented a list of reading matter relative to post-war fraternity problems. Members of the Council expressed a desire to have copies of the list furnished to them.

The President called attention to further publications and activities at Amherst College relative to the post-war fraternity situation. At the President's request, Brother Fales reported on the situation. He mentioned the interesting fact that the Amherst fraternity poll of its alumni had resulted, to date, in the receipt of 587 votes in favor of fraternities and 150 votes in opposition to fraternities. He thought the Trustees would give much weight to the final result of this referendum-vote.

The President raised the question of the position of Psi Upsilon in the post-war educational setup. There was extensive discussion in which many members of the Council took part. Brother Ham stated that fraternities must encourage intellectual interests in order to justify survival. He said he was not so much interested in the academic standings of the members of a fraternity, provided that the fraternity stimulated thought along intellectual lines. He did not believe that a fraternity would justify its existence if it were solely interested in social activities. After prolonged discussion, it appeared to be the consensus of opinion that Brother Ham's position was well taken, and that Psi Upsilon should try to encourage its alumni to give their attention to this matter and to further the intellectual interests in their respective Chapters. It was brought out that, while the matter of education was primarily the responsibility of the college, the fraternities should encourage and support educational programs rather than take a position indicating either opposition or lack of interest in such programs. It was felt that the Psi Upsilon Post-War Committee, under the chairmanship of Brother Kent, and the Psi Upsilon Committee to Explore General Fraternity Problems, under Brother Rosenberry, should keep in mind the desirability of arousing and sustaining intellectual interests in the Chapters of our Fraternity. It was felt that these Committees, particularly the latter, should view the situation not only from the standpoint of Psi Upsilon, but also from the standpoint of the fraternity system in general.

Brother Richards reported that a lease was about to be concluded with the Providence Y.M.C.A. for the use of the Sigma Chapter House. Such lease would insure the heating of the house, and would make physically possible its use by undergraduate members and alumni of the Sigma Chapter for the purpose of meetings and social activities.

Brother Richards stated that he would have to leave the meeting, and Brother Kent was appointed secretary pro tem. for the balance of the meeting.

Brother Turner reported that he had written to each Chapter inquiring whether it would be prepared to send a representative to a meeting of Chapter representatives to be held in the vicinity of New York early in June. Places at which to hold such a meeting were discussed.

A letter from Brother Sidney R. Small, Phi '09, dated January 12, 1945, was read reporting on the condition of the Phi Chapter. Brother Woolman reported that he had endeavored to visit the Psi Chapter, but found the Chapter closed. Brother Weed was assigned to visit the Nu Chapter.

Resolutions relating to the transaction of business with the Irving Trust Company were unanimously adopted.

With those present standing, the President read the Fraternity necrology, containing the names of 30 Brothers.

Meeting of May 31, 1945

The Executive Council met in Garden City, Long Island, N.Y., on Thursday, May 31, 1945, the eve of the annual Convention. President Scott Turner presided. Brothers Turner, Burleigh, Burton, Collins, Fales, Jones, Richards, Weed and Woolman were present. Brother Alfred E. Forstall, Eta '83, was also present.

The Treasurer reported briefly, stating that his formal report would be rendered to the Convention the following day. He stated that the Zeta and Epsilon Chapter owed back taxes to the Executive Council, and that two of the three Canadian Chapters also owed back taxes.

The President read a letter from the Balfour Company in regard to the purchase of articles of jewelry bearing the Psi Upsilon seal or coat-of-arms from jewelers other than the Balfour Company. It was decided that Mr. Balfour should be asked for particulars.

The President read a letter from a group of undergraduates at a Southern University who announced that they would be interested to learn how to apply for a charter of Psi Upsilon. The President's reply to this letter was approved.

The President reported the receipt from Brother Joseph W. Heald, Iota '97, of a copy of the Psi U Song Book copyrighted in 1877, containing the title-page which used to be sung to the music of "We won't go home until morning" at many of the Chapter-houses. He stated that photographs of this title-page were available on request, and expressed the hope that the use of the song would be generally revived.

The President called attention to the fact that only thirteen copies of the Psi Upsilon Song Book were available for purposes of sale after the war. Brothers Weed, Collins and Jones were appointed a committee to investigate the printing of new Song Books, and were given power to act in the event that they deemed it desirable to arrange for the publication of new books before the next meeting of Council. It was suggested that five or six, or perhaps more, of the Psi Upsilon songs should be standard in all of the Chapters, that in the new publication there might be a notation or explanatory paragraph to that effect, and that it might be advisable to group these songs at the front of the book, to call attention to their universal popularity. It was also stated that the words and music of the Phi initiation dirge, and of the title-page of the 1877 Song Book, should be included in the new volume.

The President further reported that there were one hundred and thirty sets of Psi Upsilon song records available for sale, at a price of $9.00 per set of six double discs. He called attention to portions of the annual report of the Alumni Association, which would be read at the Convention on June 1, 1945, during the recess at 4:45, when the annual meeting of the general alumni body would be held.

The President called attention to portions of the annual communication of the Executive Council to the Convention to be read at the Convention the following day. The content of the communication was approved.

Several gifts to the Archives were reported: a number of fraternity pictures and documents from Brother John V. Irwin, Delta '94; a box from Brother Earl D. Babst, Iota '93; the choice of one of two valuable documents, The Brunonian, dated November, 1860, and

The Brown Paper, dated November, 1862, both referring to the Sigma Chapter, from Brother Arthur H. Wilkinson, Sigma '17. The President indicated that he felt the earlier document should be accepted. (Later, Brother Wilkinson indicated that he would be glad to give both of these documents to the Fraternity Archives. Ed.) The appreciation of the Council for all of these gifts was expressed.

Brother Richards reported on the status of the Sigma Chapter. The Sigma Chapter House is still owned by its alumni.

The hope was expressed that the holding of future Conventions with the individual Chapters could be resumed as soon as possible upon the termination of the war.

The President reported on his efforts to obtain representation from all of the Chapters at the Convention. He stated that in his opinion at least twenty-four of the twenty-eight Chapters would be represented by delegates. Council felt that the President had done a monumental piece of work in arranging for such representation under present adverse conditions.

The reading of the necrology was waived, with the understanding that a necrology of Brothers who had given their lives in the present World War would be read to the Convention on the following day.

Meeting of October 8, 1945

The Executive Council met in New York on October 8, 1945. President Scott Turner presided. Brothers Turner, Burleigh, Burton, Collins, Fales, Field, Flagg, Jones, Richards, Rosenberry, Stevens and Woolman were present. There were also present Brothers R. Bourke Corcoran, Omega '15, a former member of the Council, Albert T. Gould, Kappa '08, James B. Longley, Kappa '48, and Arthur C. Sewall, Jr., Kappa '47.

The minutes of the meeting of May 31, 1945, were approved.

The Treasurer reported that he had received a letter from the Bureau of Internal Revenue stating that the Fraternity in general was exempt from payment of Federal Income Taxes, and that this exemption extends to the Executive Council, the Alumni Association and to each Chapter. The Treasurer stated that he would send an appropriate notice about this to each Chapter. He further reported that investments of the Fraternity which have a book value of approximately $59,000, now have a market value of approximately $63,000.

The President read a letter from the Balfour Company bearing on the matter of the purchase of items bearing the Psi Upsilon insignia from jewelers other than our official jeweler. Upon suggestion of the President, Council approved the appointment of a committee to study the situation, report to Council, prepare an article for THE DIAMOND, and draft a letter regarding jewelry which may be sent to each Chapter.

The President read the financial report covering the operation of the Annual Convention, which showed a net profit. He stated that the Records of the Convention had gone to press, and that prints from the photographic negative of the Convention could be purchased at headquarters.

The President reported on the result of his questionnaire mailed to all Chapters and Alumni Groups on September 14, 1945. (See page 4.) He further stated that he had received a report entitled "What About College Fraternities?" prepared for the National Interfraternity Conference by the Institute of Public Relations, Inc., and said that he would have copies made and forwarded to members of Council, to the Presidents of Chapter-Alumni Associations, and Heads of Houses.

The President read a letter from the Dean of Undergraduates of the University of Minnesota with respect to the appointment of graduate counselors for the Fraternity. He states that he had acknowledged the letter, and has referred the question to the undergraduates and alumni of the Mu Chapter.

The President reported that only 8 Song Books remained on the shelves at headquarters, and that recently he had ruled that sales be limited to one to each customer.

Brother Richards reported on the status of the Sigma Chapter. He stated that the House was still owned by the Chapter-alumni. Members of Council unanimously expressed approval of the stand that the Sigma alumni had taken.

Brother Collins reported that the Song Book Committee had approached several publishers, and found one who could get out a new edition by the first of the year. It was learned that rearrangement of the songs would cost more than would be justified. The publisher offered to print 1,000 copies, of which 500 copies would be bound and the remainder held for future binding. The total cost would be $891.73. The committee was authorized to contract for the publication.

Brother Field reported that the Upsilon Chapter would initiate five men at the University Club in Rochester, the Chapter House not being available at present.

It was voted that $25.00 be appropriated

Lt. Joseph MacArthur Youmans, Chi '32

DOW BEEKMAN, Theta '84, retired Schoharie county (New York) judge, died March 3, 1945, at his home in Middleburg, N.Y., at the age of 83.

Brother Beekman was a distinguished citizen, a loyal alumnus of Union College and of the Theta Chapter. He attended the Fiftieth Anniversary and the Centennial of Psi Upsilon, and edited "The Proceedings of the Semi-centennial Convention of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity." He was a member of the Undergraduate Committee for the Fiftieth Convention at Albany and a member of the committee of the Theta for the Centennial. He was Editor-in-Chief of THE DIAMOND from 1881, until his graduation from Union in 1884, the staff of THE DIAMOND being all undergraduates at that time.

In 1942 Brother Beekman was given an alumni award at the annual commencement exercises of Union College. His alma mater also conferred an honorary degree of doctor of humane letters on him in 1929.

He was elected district attorney of Schoharie County in 1889. In 1911 he was elected to the office of county judge and surrogate, and re-elected in 1917 and again in 1923. During his 18 years on the bench no decision of his as Surrogate was reversed.

In 1924 he was elected president of the First National Bank of Middleburg.

He was active in the Masonic organization, and was also associated with the New York State Historical Society, the Mohawk Valley Historical Society, and the Schoharie County Historical Society. He was a member of the New York State Bar Association, and had served as president of the Schoharie Bar Association.

He is survived by his son, Douw F. Beekman, Theta '20, and one brother.

EDWARD BUTLER BURPEE, Kappa '87; date unknown.

1ST LT. JOHN LEVITT CARTER, Chi '43, who was pilot of a P-47 Thunderbolt, was reported missing in action July 2, 1944. A report that he was killed in action was received by his parents in January, 1945, through the International Red Cross. Brother Carter was the son of George M. Carter, Phi '07. A posthumous decoration, the Air Medal with five oak leaf clusters, was conferred upon him. (See "On to the Fields of Glory . . ." June, 1945.)

tended Harvard Business School, from which he was graduated in 1924. He was vice-president and a director of the Plymouth Cordage Company, and had been appointed New England member of the Committee on Policy of the United States Chamber of Commerce. Brother Clark was the third generation of his family to serve as Consul for Haiti in Boston.

WILLIAM H. CORBIN, Beta '89, affectionately and familiarly known as "Pa" Corbin, Yale football immortal, and former Connecticut State Tax Commissioner, died April 14, 1945, in the Hartford Hospital, where he had been a patient since March 18, when he was struck by an automobile. He was 81 years old.

The 1888 Yale eleven, of which he was captain and center, went undefeated through a thirteen-game schedule, tallying 698 points while holding the opposition scoreless.

At Yale he ranked with such gridiron stars as William W. (Pudge) Heffelfinger, Frank Hinkey, Beta '95, and others of the pre-Ted McCoy era. Brother Corbin never lost his interest in Yale football and his tall, gaunt figure was a familiar sight at practice sessions and games at old Yale Field and in the Bowl.

As State Tax Commissioner from 1907 to 1920, when he retired, Brother Corbin was credited with having made many reforms in the State system of corporation and public services tax.

He is survived by his widow, a son and a daughter.

LATHAM DEAN CORNELL, Epsilon Phi '34, died at his home in Montreal on July 5, 1945. The following day the Montreal Gazette published an editorial which was both a fitting tribute and a signal honor to so young a man. We quote from this:

"That strength should emerge from weakness, and perfection of character be learned in the school of suffering is no new thing. It is a truth underlined in the history of every age that has gone to the development of humankind. Some have called it a paradox, some a mystery, why so much that is great in the minds and hearts and personalities of men has only been realized after refinement in the crucible of pain. But the fact is there.

"There died in Montreal yesterday morning a young man whose power for good, and whose own serenity and depth of character were undoubtedly made great in this way. Latham Dean Cornell was a Montrealer, 34 years old, for whom a promising career in law and finance was cut short by a diving accident ten years ago which injured his spine, made him a bedridden cripple for many months, and left him partially paralyzed ever since, though able to move about in a wheel chair.

"Deprived of physical activity and forced to abandon the career he had planned for himself and on which he was already launched, Dean Cornell's development of mind and heart never faltered. Physical restraint served but to stimulate mental enthusiasm and such deep and quiet reflection as led him to a new awareness of the needs and problems of others. Taking up literary work, he became a writer of interesting articles, and even greater distinction came to him in the field of radio, where he took up broadcasting—notably and most successfully in the form of a series of talks on the Victory Loan, which were widely quoted. Among the friends he won during his long hospitalization were the late Lord Tweedsmuir, and the late Sir Herbert Holt, both of whom were among his visitors. But far beyond a hospital room and his own home in later days, the influence of this brave, unselfish, cheerful young man who refused to give in to adversity was felt.

"Dean Cornell gave a glimpse of something better, something constructive, something happy and worthwhile to thousands of people who might have felt otherwise that life, or fate, or Providence had not dealt fairly with them. No one, giving thanks for Dean Cornell's courage and faith in the face of suffering and grievous handicaps will ever say that his life was not richly justified, or that strength was not once more made perfect in weakness."

Brother Cornell was right up to the very end a pillar and a power in Psi Upsilon. He was known far and wide in the Fraternity, and was most active both in his undergraduate days when he was President of the House, and later as an alumnus. At the time of his death he was President of the Epsilon Phi Alumni Association.

2ND LT. RICHARD VAUGHN DARGIE, Zeta '44, was killed on July 12, 1944, when his parachute caught fire as he was bailing out of a B-24, of which he was co-pilot. He had 35 missions over Europe, the last being to Nimes, France.

WILLIAM RINEHART EVERETT, Mu '14, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, died November 22, 1943.

COMMANDER PAUL MCLEOD FLAGG, USNR, Theta Theta '19, was instantly killed near Philadelphia Monday, March 19, 1945 when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a westbound Pennsylvania Railroad commuter train from Philadelphia. Services for Commander Flagg, with full military honors, were held at the Philadelphia Navy Yard Chapel on Friday, March 22.

Paul McLeod Flagg was born near Seattle, Washington, October 24, 1895. He received his pre-college education in the Seattle public schools and was attending the University of Washington when the first World War broke out. He served during that war as an Ensign and Lieutenant, junior grade. After the war he resumed his college work, graduating from the University of Washington as an electrical engineer in 1919.

He remained in the Naval Reserves, to which organization he gave a great deal of time, for which he received high commendation.

In civil life he was connected with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in its Seattle office. A year before Pearl Harbor the Navy called him to active duty. He served at various stations on both the west coast and the east coast. For the past two years he had been assigned to duty at the Philadelphia Navy Yard in charge of the Commissioning Detail, handling ships of size smaller than destroyers.

Commander Flagg is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fern Bonham Flagg, and daughter, Joan, who temporarily is a student at West Chester State Teachers College, West Chester, Pennsylvania. The family will return to their permanent home at Seattle, Washington.

Commander Flagg leaves two brothers, Herbert J. Flagg, Theta Theta '12, of Ridgewood, New Jersey, a member of the Executive Council of Psi Upsilon, Alfred Tremayne Flagg of Chehalis, Washington, and a sister, Mrs. Lola Flagg Noel of Seattle, Washington.

CAPTAIN ROBERT B. FOWLER, U.S.M.C., Phi '42, was killed in action in the Pacific area June 11, 1945. He was the son of Brother L. B. Fowler, Kappa '14, and Mrs. Fowler, of West Hartford, Connecticut. He was with one of the first Marine assault waves which stormed Guadalcanal and held the island until relieved by Army troops. He then participated in the Cape Gloucester landing with the first forces to go ashore. He was promoted to first lieutenant in December, 1942, and to Captain in August, 1943. In March, 1944, he returned to this country and was assigned to New River, N.C., where he joined a new unit which was being readied for combat. He returned to the Pacific area with this unit in August, 1944. His commanding officer has expressed his intention of recommending that the Legion of Merit be awarded posthumously.

DOUGLAS GOTT, Beta Beta '10, whose home was in New Haven, Connecticut, died; date unknown.

THEODORE MEECH GOWANS, Beta '96, of Buffalo, New York, died December 22, 1943.

GENERAL GEORGE GREENE, Beta Beta '83; date unknown. His home in early life was in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Of late years he had lived in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

WILLIAM IRWIN GRUBB, Beta '83, of Birmingham, Alabama; date unknown. He was formerly U. S. District Judge Northern District of Alabama.

CHARLES H. HALL, Psi '10, Baldwinsville,

New York, attorney and justice of the peace of the town of Lysander, New York, died March 31, 1945. Funeral services were conducted at Brother Hall's home by the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, Pi '86.

LT. JOHN PETER HAMILTON, Zeta Zeta '43, has been reported lost at sea, and is presumed to be dead.

JAMES ALEXANDER HAYDEN, Upsilon '78, died November 27, 1936.

ROBERT TOLLES JONES, Xi '98, died January 8, 1945, at New London, Connecticut. A fall at his home at Neptune Park on the Harbor caused a broken leg. Removal to a local hospital was followed by complications, and death resulted.

Born in Norwalk, Connecticut, on September 26, 1874, the son of the Rev. R. W. Jones, Xi '71, he prepared for college at Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Massachusetts.

Three younger brothers also followed their father in Psi U—Roy H., 1901, Edwin C., 1904, and Vincent W., 1911—making a notable Xi family group.

Brother Jones spent the first years after graduation with stock brokerage firms in New York City and in the circulation department of Curtis Publishing Company in Philadelphia. In 1912 he joined Gardiner Hall Company, thread Manufacturers of South Willington, Connecticut. He continued that connection until his retirement as manager in 1927.

In 1911 he married Ida May Hall, a schoolmate at Wilbraham and sister of William Henry Hall, Xi '92. His wife survives, as does also their daughter, Elizabeth, married to Bradford Raymond Frost, Xi '35. There are two grandchildren.

Such cumulative ties to the Fraternity naturally deepened his interest in its welfare. Besides, he was available by residence and by retirement from exacting business engagements to serve his Chapter officially over a long period as trustee and treasurer of the Xi Corporation. This he did with the utmost fidelity. He has been succeeded by his brother, Vincent, 1911.

Brother Jones was a liberal supporter of the Xi financially. His concern lay in the preservation of the spiritual values which had marked the Chapter in his father's day and his own, and which he believed could be maintained over another century of Chapter history. He had several times offered prizes for good scholastic standing.

When war came to the campus, he was prominent among the alumni who found means to keep the house open and whose fostering care encouraged the active Chapter to hold morale at a high level despite reduced numbers. From his own experience over the years he was sure that the Chapter of Psi Upsilon should again fill their ranks and resume their programs of intellectual and social training in the frame of romantic friendship.

His interest in education, and that of Mrs. Jones ran beyond Wesleyan to colleges in the South and in the Far East. His brother, Edwin, 1904, was president of a college in China at the time of his early death in 1924.

Like other men of his calibre and temperament, he was addicted to unheralded acts of kindness to many who have reason to remember him gratefully.

He had no inclination towards public office. However, he served as chairman of the Board of Governors of the residential association of Neptune Park.

The Fraternity, particularly the Xi Chapters, loses a good Psi U.

NORMAN ALEXANDER McLARTY, Nu '10, died in Ottawa on September 16, 1945, a few hours after the marriage of his daughter.

Norman A. McLarty, Nu '10

He attended the ceremony and reception, where Prime Minister Mackenzie King proposed the toast to the bride. Later he and Mrs. McLarty entertained out-of-town guests and a few intimate friends at dinner. Just after the last guest had left, Brother McLarty collapsed and died. He was fifty-six years old.

Brother McLarty had been a member of the Canadian Cabinet throughout most of the war years. He was postmaster general for eight months in 1939, was appointed Minister of Labor by Prime Minister King, and was later appointed Secretary of State, a post he held for more than four years until his resignation last April.

In private life Brother McLarty was a corporation lawyer, a former solicitor for the Bank of Nova Scotia, and a director of the Industrial Acceptance Corporation and Equitable Life of Canada. He was an enthusiastic member of Psi Upsilon, and was one of those who worked hardest to obtain a charter for the present Nu Chapter. He was actively interested in the arrangements for the Convention of 1937, which was held with that Chapter.

BENJAMIN WISTAR MORRIS, III, Beta Beta '93, a leading architect, died on December 4, 1944. He was born in Portland, Oregon, in 1870, a son of the Rt. Rev. He was the architect of '79 and Patton Halls, Princeton University; the Connecticut State Arsenal and Armory; Junius S. Brother Sheehan was born in Cohoes, New York, and lived there during the earlier part of his life. At one time he was the head of a large real estate agency in Miami, Florida. He was vice-president of the Miami Beach Realty Board and one of the Committee of One Hundred in Miami.

WALTER BYRON SMITH, Beta '99, died April 2, 1945. He was a banker, industrialist and civic leader.

Brother Smith was a director of the Northern Trust Company of Chicago, and a chairman of the board of the Illinois Tool works. He was a trustee and officer of many charitable and civic institutions. He is survived by his widow and one daughter.

JOSEPH HENRY SPAFFORD, Gamma '84, a lawyer who had practiced in New York City for fifty-one years, died February 10, 1945. He was 83.

While at Amherst, Brother Spafford led the college glee club for two years and sang in the quartet. For many years after his graduation, he offered an annual prize for the best new college song, and from this competition came "Lord Jeffrey Amherst" and "Cheer for Old Amherst."

CURWEN STODDARD, JR., Delta '30; date unknown. He lived in Brooklyn and was in business in New York.

LT. COL. EDWIN AUGUSTUS STROUT, Beta '12, died March 10, 1945.

"Win" Strout was born in Seattle 54 years ago of a pioneer Seattle family. At Yale he distinguished himself as a scholar and athlete; played on the football team and was elected to Skull and Bones. He was graduated in 1912.

In "Win" Strout, Seattle and Psi Upsilon had one of its most lovable members. He served in many civic enterprises. His administration as president of the Seattle Rotary Club proved to be outstanding in its kindness and in the engendering of fraternal affection among the members. His spirit emanating from the heart was contagious.

In World War I his record was enviable. He was discharged with the rank of Captain. When the present war broke out, he immediately rejoined the service. Rather than become a Major tied to administration, he accepted a Captaincy assigned to field and combat duty. He was advanced through merit to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, but the shock and hardships endured both in combat and in the field were more than his middle age could stand. He returned broken in health and with an intermittent resurgence of battle shock. Gradually his physical health returned but shock recurrences were severe. During one of these, he opened the door to the great beyond and passed through.

WILLIAM BYFORD TAYLOR, III, Delta Delta '46, died in Italy, January 3, 1945.

JOHN HERMAN TERRY, Tau '91, one of the founders of the Tau Chapter, died on February 5, 1945. He was a noted engineer and a resident of Edgewater Park, New Jersey.

PFC. BARTON JOHN TIDEMAN, Rho '45, died in France December 19, 1944, from wounds received the previous day.

In a letter to his brother, James Tideman, Rho '36, his commanding officer, Brig. Gen. Frank L. Culin wrote, in part: "He did his duty splendidly and was loved and admired by all who knew him. We will not forget. He gave his life in battle in the service of his country—these simple words cannot lighten our sorrow, but they bring great pride and inspiration to us all."

THEODORE CLAUS VIEBROCK, Delta '42, was killed recently while flying a bomber in the European theater of operations.

LT. DONALD WARREN YARROW, Phi '46, was killed in action in Germany March 23, 1945. Brother Yarrow went overseas in January, 1944, and since last June his unit had been almost continuously in action. He was wounded July 10 at St. Lo and was awarded the Purple Heart. On the afternoon before his Company crossed the Rhine, while acting as liaison officer, he was struck by a piece of shrapnel and killed. He was buried on March 25, 1945 in the Margraten Military Cemetery in Holland with military honors.

At his death Brother Yarrow was wearing five battle stars, the Combat Infantry Badge, the Purple Heart with one oak leaf cluster, the Presidential Unit Citation and was posthumously awarded the Bronze Star for gallantry in action. He was the son of Paul Warren Yarrow, Omicron '24, of 10867 South Hoyne Avenue, Chicago.

LT. JOSEPH MACARTHUR YOUMANS, Chi '32, died in the torpedoing of the unmarked Japanese prison ship Oraku Maru in December, 1944. The ship was removing 1,600 American prisoners from Bilibid Prison in the Philippines.

Brother Youmans went directly to the Philippines after his graduation from Cornell University in 1932. He was employed by the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company. In 1940 his marriage took place in Manila. His wife was evacuated from Manila in the spring of 1941, and their son, Joseph MacArthur Youmans, Jr., was born in South Orange, N.J., six days after Pearl Harbor.

Brother Youmans escaped from Manila on New Year's Eve "about two jumps ahead of the Japs," according to a letter from him received by his mother some months later. He reported immediately for active duty and was assigned to the engineers. He fought through the bitterly contested campaign, and after the fall of Corregidor was known to be a prisoner.

At Cornell, Lt. Youmans was a varsity letter man in lacrosse, a member of Sphinx Head, Red Key, Scabbard and Blade, the Officers' Club, and a Captain in the ROTC. He was chairman of the Class Day Committee and managing editor of the Cornellian. He is survived by his mother, wife and son.

After discussion, Brother Turner thanked Brother Gould for his presence and assistance, and expressed the appreciation of Council for the cooperative attitude shown by Brothers Longley and Sewall, and for the excellence of their plan of action to be followed in the future. Brothers Longley and Sewall then expressed their gratitude for the invitation to attend the meeting of Council.

The reading of the necrology was postponed until the next meeting, which will be on November 7th.
