AUTUMN 1985

From An Owl

Psi U has never been larger or stronger — thirty-three active Chapters (including Owl Clubs) and more undergraduate members than at any previous time in our history! What could be a more appropriate time for our Fraternity to become more involved and interested in the affairs of other fraternities.

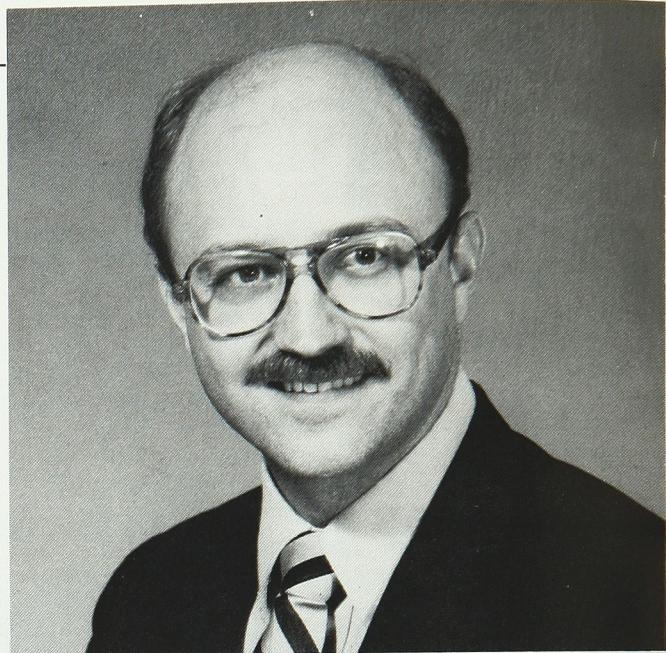

One aspect of Psi U's involvement in the interfraternity movement is our membership in the National Interfraternity Conference. Our attachments go back a long way in NIC — all the way back to the late thirties when Scott Turner, our own past President, was the President of NIC. His own distress upon Psi U's departure from NIC in the mid-part of this century did not deter Psi U from re-entering NIC in the 1970's and the active involvement of Brother Poor and Brothers Morey and McShane since that time. My first opportunity to see the NIC in action was at its annual meeting in Louisville last December. I was delighted at the willingness to share experiences and information that existed there and made many friendships that merely extend the group of "brothers" to whom we may all turn for assistance.

My experience was so encouraging that I was able to persuade the Executive Council to hold its meeting this December in Washington in conjunction with the annual meeting of NIC on December 5-7, 1985, at the Hyatt Regency Crystal City near Washington National Airport. This effort to participate with other fraternity volunteers and executives was a superb opportunity for our own volunteer leaders to exchange information with other fraternity leaders and gain new ideas in ways to deal with "the same old problems."

Our interfraternity efforts are not limited to the annual meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference, you can be sure. Brother Poor is an active member of the Fraternity Executives Association, having served as its President in recent years and the current chairman of a task force to plan for rather than react to circumstances similar to those that have occurred at Amherst College and Colby College in recent years. In addition, Brother Poor has been asked in recent years to assist in visits to various college and university campuses for the purpose of reviewing the fraternity systems and making recommendations to the administration and interfraternity councils for improvements.

Our field directors have regularly attended National Field Staff Conferences sponsored by the NIC to orient new fraternity field men to their jobs. That training, combined with a unique opportunity to have our field directors trained by the staff of Lambda Chi Alpha, has given them a rare insight into how other fraternities operate and how that can best be utilized by Psi U in its ongoing operations.

In addition to these disparate activities, Brother Poor and I have also had several unique opportunities to participate in planning for the future of the fraternity movement. He has participated for the last several years in several seminars designed to look at new approaches to the fraternity experience, not only from the specific fraternity viewpoint but also from the university and business viewpoint as well. I had a recent opportunity to participate in a conference sponsored by NIC to assist in the long range planning for that organization. Bringing together national fraternity and sorority presidents and executives as well as fraternity advisers, student affairs deans and vice presidents, and finally college and university presidents themselves to plan for the future of the fraternity movement is quite an exciting experience. Breaking down into small groups carefully crafted to include members of all groups represented, we prognosticated about the next twenty-five years, looked at what the challenges and successes will be, and tried to identify appropriate organizational mechanisms to best meet those challenges. Those of you who have participated in corporate or governmental long range planning processes will understand both the enjoyment and the frustration of attempting to "crystal ball" the future while still trying to keep your feet planted firmly in the present. It is certainly a mind-expanding experience, and one that may prove helpful to Psi U as well.

Our interfraternity involvement is not limited to events involving many fraternities and multiple groups of concerned parties. We have also been working closer to home to reactivate an old interfraternity association — the Historical Triad. This group of three fraternities — Psi Upsilon, Alpha Delta Phi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon — holds a long historical thread! We have attempted to rekindle this old association with two meetings in the spring and summer of this year to share common challenges and experiences ranging from education programs to foundations to annual giving and see where our common interests might lead us.

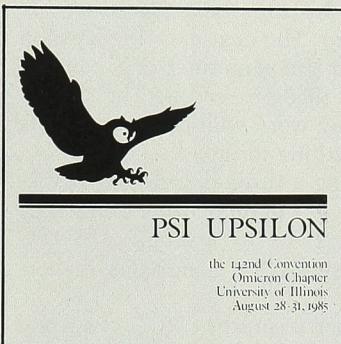

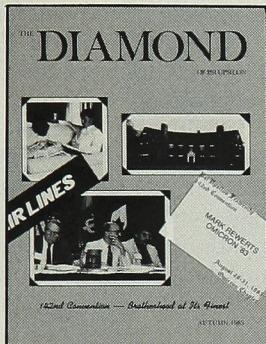

In short, Psi U has always been involved in interfraternity efforts, whether it be encouraging the continuing involvement of our undergraduate Chapters in the interfraternity council on their campus, working with a few national fraternities with whom we share a special heritage, or making some small contribution (and taking away a wealth of experience and information) within the National Interfraternity Conference or the Fraternity Executives Association. Our efforts will continue and, we hope, will reap great new opportunities for Psi U to face the future better armed than we have been in the past.

Fraternity News From Across the Continent

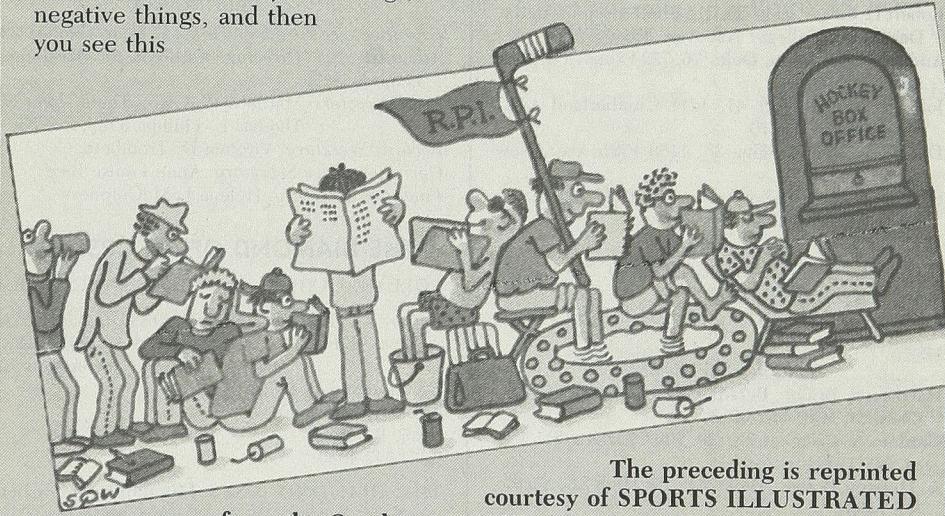

HOLD THAT LINE

(Troy, NY) On March 30, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute beat Providence 2-1 in Detroit to win the NCAA hockey championship. The next morning Epsilon Iota undergraduates showed up outside the Student Union on the R.P.I. campus and formed a line to buy season tickets for the 1985-86 season. The tickets weren't to go on sale until September 25, but they were willing to take turns waiting the 179 days for the window to open. Anything for good seats.

The Epsilon Iota undergraduates were upholding a three-decade-old R.P.I. tradition of student groups trying to outdo one another in line-sitting for hockey tickets. The previous long-wait record was 33 days, set by a group of ROTC students in 1983; but now, with the Engineers the NCAA champions, tickets obviously were REALLY worth waiting for.

The Psi U effort took stamina. During the summer term, they studied as they sat in a wading pool brought to the scene. They also hooked up a stereo system, for where would college students be without their rock 'n' roll? As September neared, other students joined the Psi U contingent on the line.

Their efforts did not go unnoticed. They were served coffee and doughnuts by Daniel Berg, President of R.P.I., and by the entire championship hockey team. Rensselaer's hockey coach watched and called the phenomenon of the hockey line "a great thing, wholesome and constructive. It's an outlet, a release for students in a very sophisticated academic environment. When you think of all the problems today, the drugs, the negative things, and then you see this wholesome spirit, this esprit de corps, well it's gratifying."

In addition to setting a record, the Epsilon Iota added a new twist to this R.P.I. tradition. They elicited pledges from the community to benefit four local agencies and raised substantial funds for these charitable organizations. And their efforts brought national acclaim, as well. They were featured in USA Today, Sports Illustrated, and a variety of local newspapers.

We applaud the Epsilon Iota Chapter for their creativity, their perseverance, and their spirit!

IT'S A SMALL WORLD

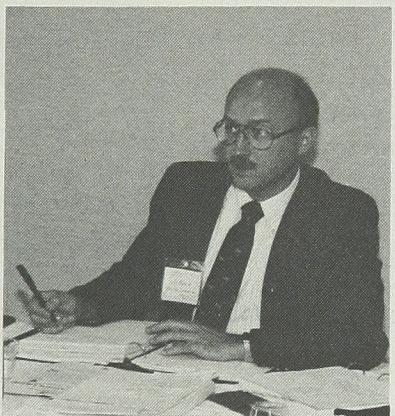

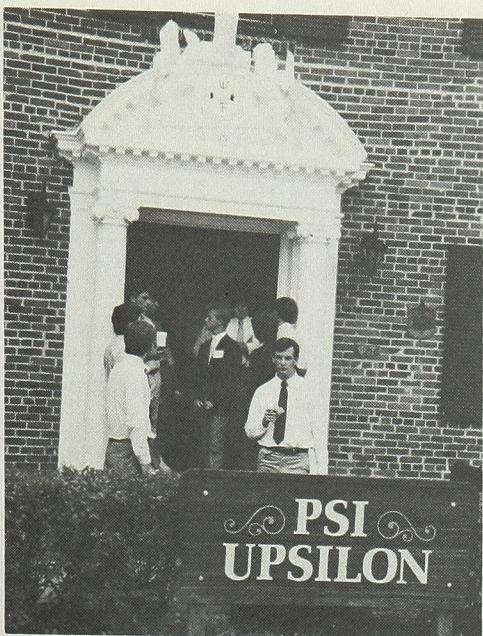

(Versailles, France) Ed Hogan, Omicron '87, who is currently studying for a year in Europe, writes, "While in Vienna I ran into two brothers from the Gamma. They were studying in Rome and on break. We could only talk for a short while, since I was leaving for Venice and my train was there. I asked if they knew John O'Malley and Jon Ralph [the Gamma's two undergraduates at this year's Convention] and they did. Too small of a world!"

OFFICE OF THE DAY

(Philadelphia, PA) Imagine our surprise when, upon talking to a member of the Eta Chapter, we were advised that he had heard on the radio that the Psi Upsilon International office had been chosen "Office of the Day" by radio station WMMR in Philadelphia! It seems that a certain former member of the staff (now a law student at Emory University) submitted the names of the fraternity staff (led by the fearless "Hanker") to WMMR's "Morning Zoo" as deserving recipients of this honor. The staff enjoyed a delightful lunch in Philadelphia (courtesy of WMMR) as a reward for this dubious distinction.

A NEW LOOK

(Paoli, PA) We hope our readers took notice of the new masthead used on the cover of this issue of The Diamond. This "new look" replaces the previous masthead, which first appeared on the spring issue in 1976. We hope you like the change — we felt it long overdue. We welcome your comments, criticisms, suggestions, or recommendations concerning this or any other aspect of the Fraternity's magazine.

What was the 1985 Convention? It was hard work, it was good fun, but most of all it was

BROTHERHOOD AT ITS FINEST

For the nearly two hundred delegates who came from throughout the United States and Canada, the 142nd Convention was more than workshops and conferences, more than the annual meeting of Psi Upsilon's legislative body, more than the 75th anniversary celebration of one of our great Chapters. It was the formation of new friendships, the rekindling of old ones — an intangible sense of brotherhood shared by us all. It is as if our 152-year-old fraternity gets another dose of assurance each year of why it exists and what makes it special — it makes us all feel good about belonging to Psi Upsilon.

A Closer Look at the 1985 Convention

The Fraternity staff and the Omicron Chapter spent months of planning so that when the delegates began arriving in Champaign, Illinois on Wednesday, August 28 for the beginning of the 142nd Convention, the seemingly endless details were set. A sunny day greeted the delegates as they checked into what became their "home" for the next four days, the University Inn. Brothers were greeted by undergraduates of the Omicron Chapter and directed to the registration and information table, ably staffed throughout the Convention by Helena McGuinness, Financial Secretary for the Fraternity. Simultaneously a reception was held at the lovely Omicron Chapter house, providing an opportunity for members of the host Chapter to proudly welcome their guests to the Chapter and to the University of Illinois.

Following a fine buffet dinner, Bill Robie, Epsilon Omega '66, President of the Executive Council, and Henry B. Poor, Gamma '39, Executive Vice President, conducted an orientation meeting and a review of parliamentary procedure in anticipation of the work to be done over the next few days. This provided many with their first glimpse of what a Psi U Convention was all about. The meeting ended with a premier showing of the just completed (literally moments before) Psi U slide show, which received rave reviews. Former Field Director Mark Bauer, Omega '83, and newly appointed Field Director Tom Phillips, Omicron '85, deserve the credit for this entertaining pictorial presentation of Psi U of the then and now. The culmination of Wednesday evening's activities (and each evening thereafter) was an open house at the Omicron, where good cheer and the spirit of brotherhood were plentiful.

Thursday began with a three-hour meeting of the Executive Council, followed by the Convention's opening luncheon. Dr. Stanley Levy, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Illinois, attended the luncheon and graciously extended warm greetings and a hearty welcome to the gathered delegates.

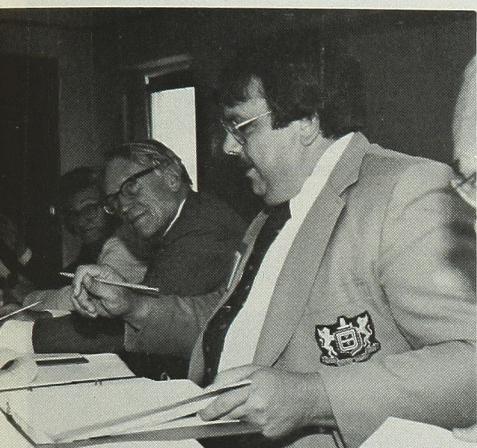

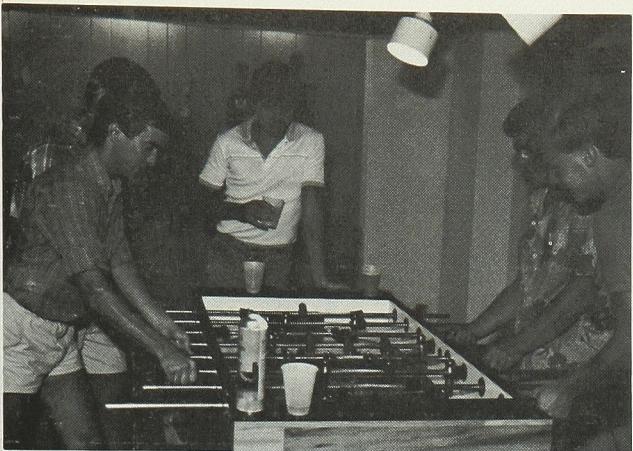

The 142nd Convention was formally called to order that afternoon by Bill King, Omicron '73, President of the Omicron's alumni association, who in turn passed the gavel to the Convention's highly competent President, Bill Robie, for the start of business. Standing committee meetings followed, under the able leadership of committee chairmen Chuck Hall, Nu Alpha '71 (Budget and Devel-

Omicron Chapter

September 3, 1985

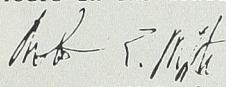

Dear Brothers:

Many thanks to those of you who attended the International Convention in Champaign. This was a truly memorable Convention, one which will be an inspiration to the Omicron Chapter for years to come.

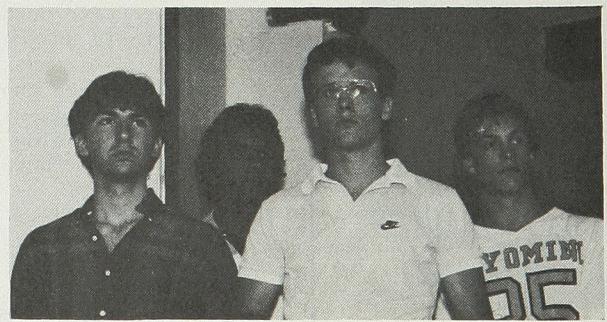

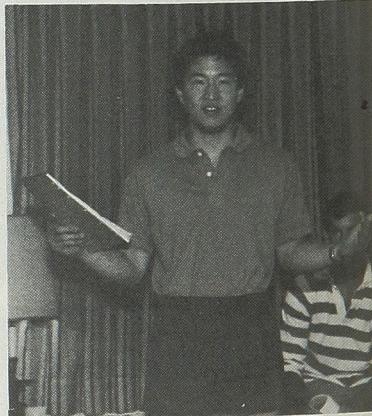

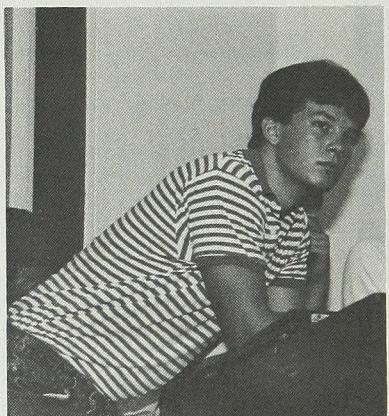

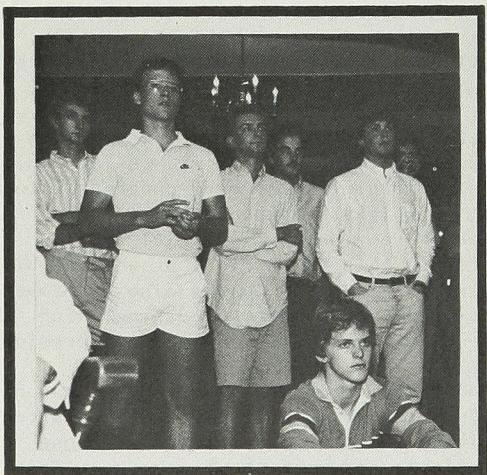

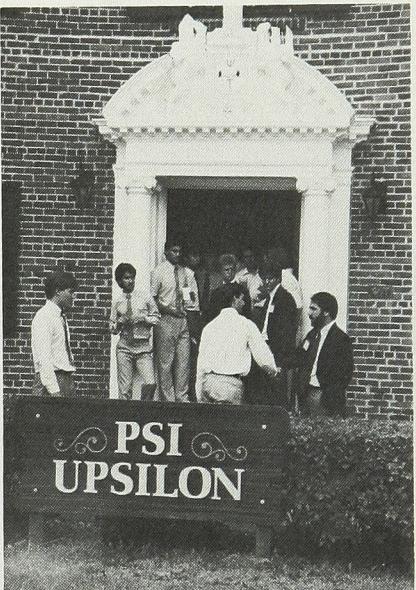

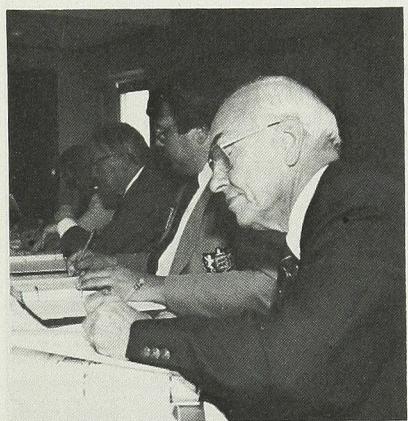

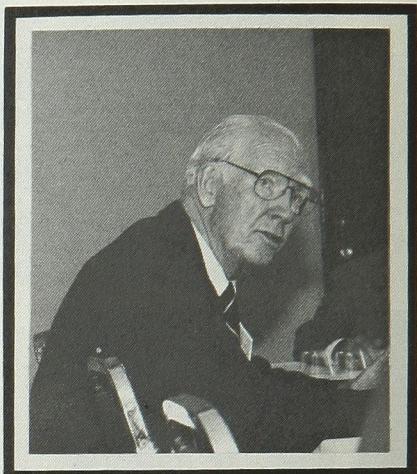

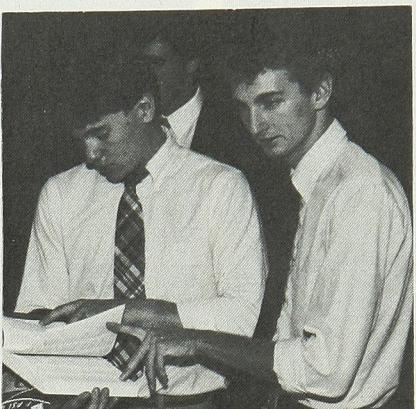

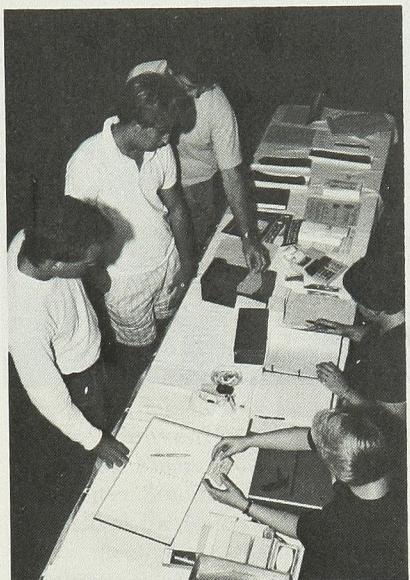

I wish to convey my special thanks to Kathy McGclone, Helena McGuinness, Matt Clary, Tom Phillips, and Mark Bauer. As a result of their efforts, I was the happy recipient of many congratulations and expressions of good will, of which they should receive the lion's share. Of course, Brother Poor deserves special mention for his invaluable contribution to this Convention, as well as his contributions to our Fraternity in general. Thanks also to members of the Executive Council and Foundation who attended, including Brothers Robie and McShane, our current and immediate past presidents.

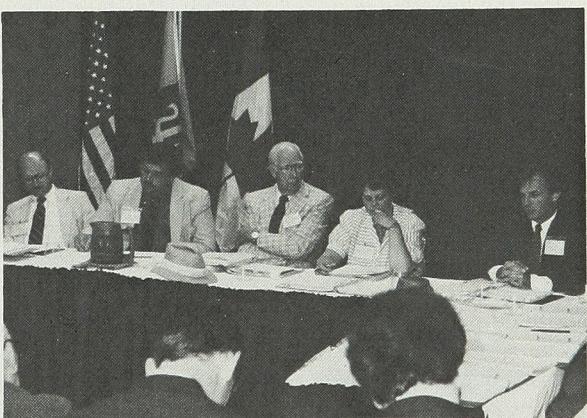

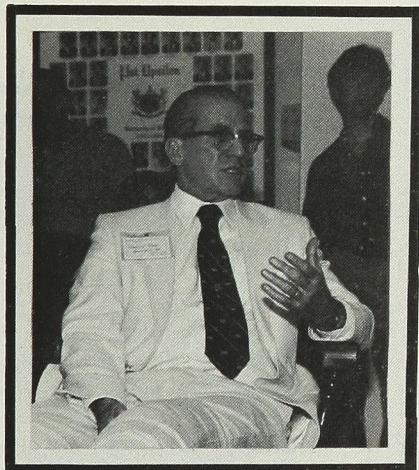

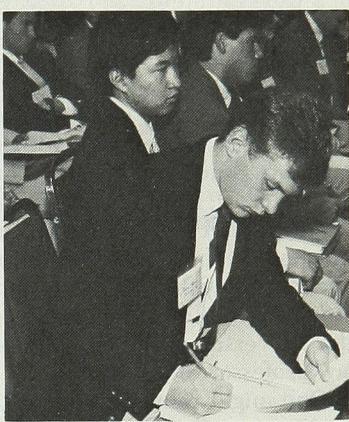

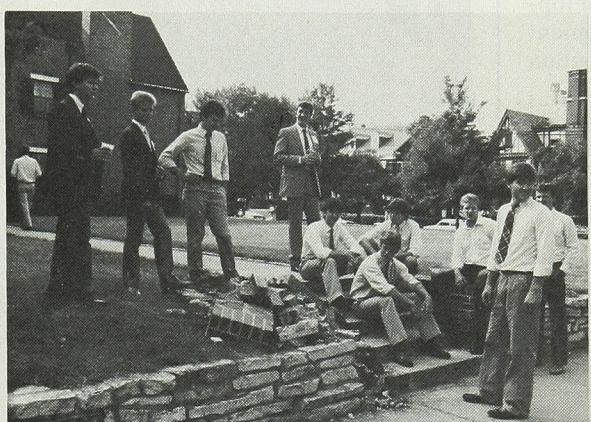

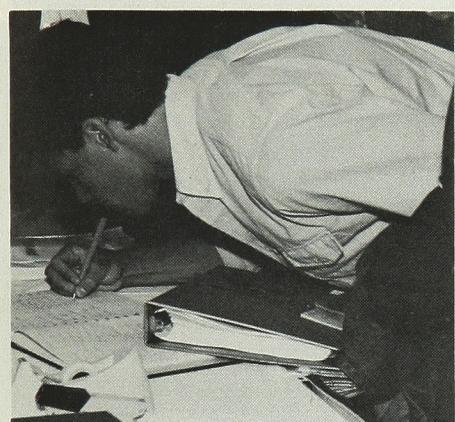

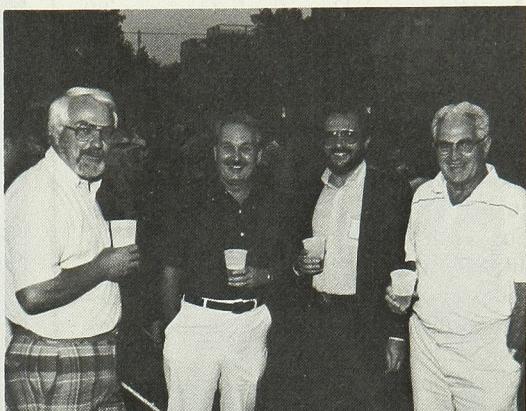

Those of you who were unable to attend this Convention can only make up for the great time you missed by making plans now to attend the 143rd Convention at the Theta Theta next year. Clear those calendars, make those travel plans, and meet the brothers in Seattle!

Yours in the Bonds,

Robert E. McIntire, Omicron '68

opment); John Menzies, Pi '41 (Nominations); Zbish Pietrzak, Chi Delta '86 (New Business); Dave Rank, Omicron '86 (Chapter Status); Peter Strumph, Tau '86 (Unfinished Business); and J. C. White, Gamma Tau '74 (Credentials and Permanent Organization).

Educational workshops later that afternoon and again on Friday morning focused on the theme of the 142nd Convention, "Building a Future on Tradition," with the introduction of a new comprehensive education program designed to broaden and enrich the fraternity experience. Entitled "Fraternity Education," this program incorporates elements of chapter development, member development, personal development, and interpersonal development into a year-round educational program for both brothers and pledges.

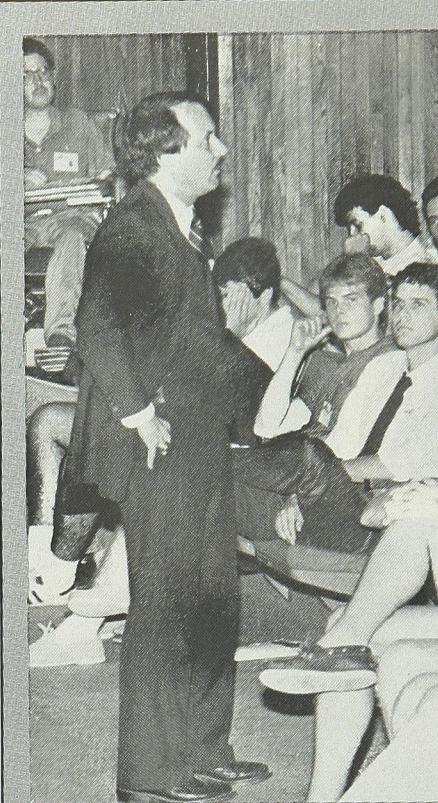

Friday brought more workshops, a general legislative meeting, the first meeting of the newly formed Alumni Advisory Board, and the formal Convention photograph. A welcome break midday was luncheon at the University Inn, made especially enjoyable by the delightful talk of John E. Cribbet, former Chancellor of the University of Illinois and presently a law professor there.

One might think that the 142nd Convention was all work and no play. Not so! Friday evening's festive "Islands Party" on the lawn of the Omicron featured a dixieland band, a roasted pig, an enormous tent, plus plenty of good food, drink, and company. Alumni and undergraduates alike capped off the evening with a visit to the Greek campus pub, Kam's.

Saturday dawned bright and clear for this, the last day of business meetings. Standing committees concluded their deliberations and the final items of legislation were brought before the floor for the assembled delegates' discussion and vote.

Saturday evening's program came as a welcome respite after the long day of intense meetings. A simple yet moving memorial ceremony, led by Henry B. Poor, honored brothers who had died within the last year. This was followed by the initiation of two new Omicron brothers into the bonds of Psi Upsilon in the Omicron's very dignified initiation ceremony.

The 142nd Convention banquet was a celebration — a celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Omicron Chapter, of the work that had been completed, and of the new friendships that had been made and the old friendships rekindled. Cocktails preceded a sumptuous meal, during which the sounds of Psi U tunes and favorite college fight songs could be heard reverberating through the formerly quiet

David L. Westol

Each Psi Upsilon Convention in recent years has featured an invited speaker who has addressed a topic which closely affects the Fraternity, such as hazing, alcohol and substance abuse, and ritual. We have been incredibly fortunate in securing dynamic people who were highly successful in reaching and motivating their audiences. This year was no exception.

There was not a person in the Plaza Room of the University Inn on Thursday, August 29, who was not mesmerized by the presentation of David L. Westol entitled "Hazing on Trial." It was inspiring, it was thought-provoking, and, yes, it was disturbing, but most of all it was inordinately effective. And we hope that the positive effects of this outstanding presentation were taken back to each and every Chapter.

David Westol, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and Chief of Circuit Court Felony Trials in Kalamazoo County, has been the National President of Theta Chi Fraternity since 1980. From 1974 to 1979 he served as Advisor to Fraternities at Michigan State University while he pursued his law degree. He has addressed over thirty fraternity and sorority conventions and has spoken on over seventy-five campuses on hazing and/or legal affairs.

Mr. Westol has our warmest thanks for the service he provided to Psi Upsilon and for the enormous contribution he is making to the interfraternity world.

halls of the University Inn. Bill King, Omicron '73, served as master of ceremonies for this spirited event and introduced the speakers: Bob McIntire, Omicron '68, Convention Chairman; Charlie Chen, Omicron '86, undergraduate President; John Parker, Omicron '28, honorary Convention Chairman; and Darrell Martinie, Omicron '65, Boston radio personality.

Each year one of Psi Upsilon's Chapters is recognized for its academic excellence. It was Bill Robie's honor to present at the banquet the Psi Upsilon Award for Academic Distinction to the Omega Chapter at the University of Chicago, whose academic performance in 1984-85 was truly outstanding. The award was gratefully accepted by Bob Kang '86, Harold Tsai '87, and Paul Gibbons '86.

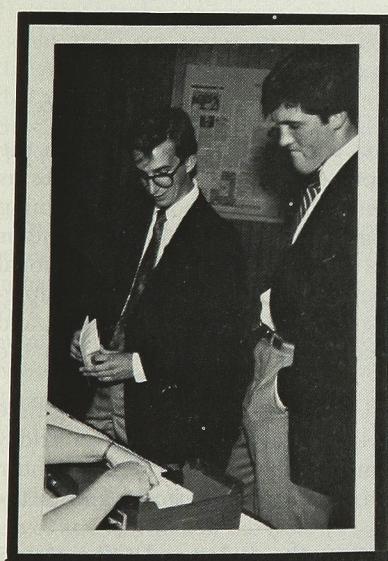

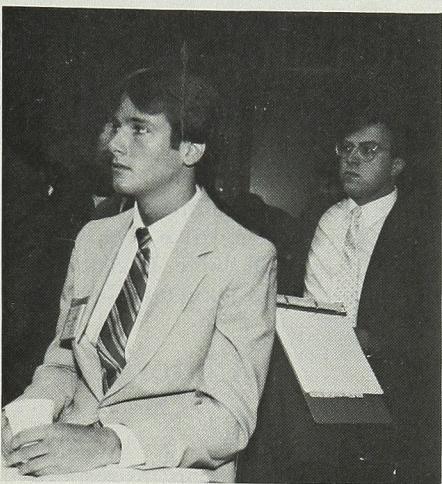

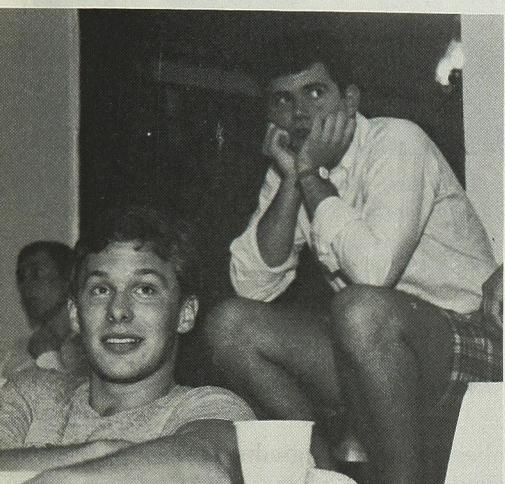

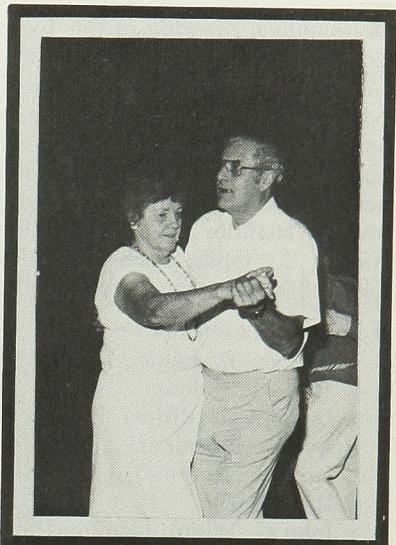

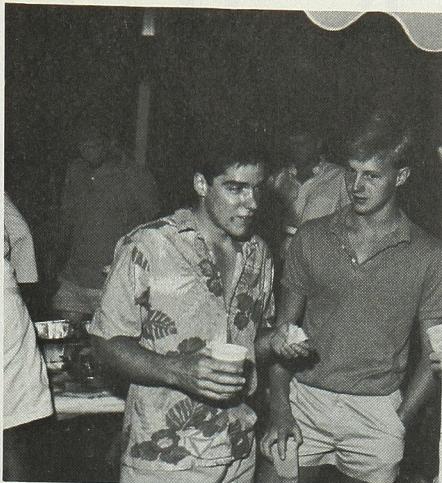

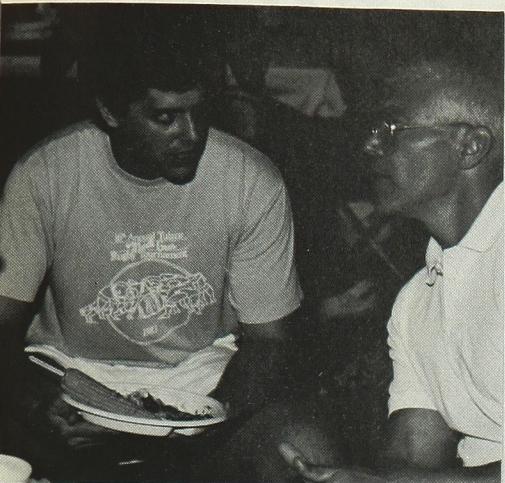

Before departing for one last open house at the Omicron, the group linked hands, formed a huge circle, and sang the "Shrine Song." It was a fitting end to a most memorable four days.

Many well-deserved kudos are in order for the brothers who made the 142nd

Convention the success that it was. Certainly Bill King, Bob McIntire, and Charlie Chen, all of whom were mentioned above, deserve special thanks for their months of planning and preparation. Two others must receive a lion's share of the credit: Jim Cunningham, Omicron '87, undergraduate Convention Chairman, and Mark Rewerts, Omicron '83, who very adeptly handled all the myriad details. Without their tremendous efforts, the Convention could not have run as smoothly as it did.

Thanks would not be complete without mentioning the undergraduates of the Omicron Chapter. They were exceptionally gracious, unbelievably hard working, wonderfully organized, conscientious and efficient beyond all expectations — in other words, superb hosts!

Sunday morning found the delegates departing for their respective homes, a weary but fulfilled group. They left with a renewed sense of brotherhood and dedication to Psi U, a sure indication that the 142nd Convention was indeed a success.

- Adoption of by-laws revisions to more accurately reflect the present size of the Executive Council, its election procedures, and its committee structure.
- Appointment of regular and special committees, including a Task Force on Ritual and a Sesquicentennial History Committee.
- Approval of two-month financial statement showing receipts of $6,791.45 and expenses of $34,319.53, for a deficit of $27,528.08.
- Report of outstanding Chapter assessments in the amount of $26,063.
- Approval of an interim policy to reimburse the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Undergraduate Advisory Board for their travel costs to Executive Council meetings at a rate no more than the least expensive airfare or their actual expense, whichever is less, with this policy to be reviewed by the Administrative Committee.

The UAB held its first meeting at the Convention and then traveled to Paoli the weekend of October 4-6 for comprehensive, in-depth discussions on such topics as eliciting more effective undergraduate input at Conventions, the policy concerning restoring votes at Conventions to Chapters in arrears, handling social events and/or rush functions in states where the drinking age is 21, making Divisional/Regional Conferences better organized and thus more meaningful, diminishing risks by implementing safer accounting practices in Chapters (such as bonding treasurers), and implementing the new Fraternity Education program which was introduced at the Convention.

The UAB's spare time over this weekend was just as enjoyable as its working time was productive. Henry and Mary Poor hosted a delicious meal at their home on Friday evening, and the group traveled to the Tau Chapter on Saturday evening for a delightful dinner (cooked by two of the brothers). Many, many thanks to the Poors and to the Tau Chapter for their gracious hospitality.

The Undergraduate Advisory Board will meet again in the spring and will maintain regular communication with each other, the Fraternity office, and the Chapters in the intervening months.

New High Reached in 1984-85 Annual Giving Program

Once again the loyal and generous alumni of Psi Upsilon have come through with flying colors! The 1984-85 Annual Giving goal of $135,200 seemed very ambitious, for it represented an increase of almost $19,000 over the previous year's results. But that goal was met, even exceeded by over $6,000!

The 1984-85 Annual Giving program resulted in 2,273 contributions totaling $141,505. This represents an average gift size of $62.26, probably the highest in the fraternity world and over $10 larger than last year's average gift. A major factor in this dramatic growth was the increase in leadership contributors (those giving $50 or more) from 821 in 1983-84 to 989 in 1984-85.

This response is truly heartwarming, for it has allowed the Fraternity to meet the always escalating cost of providing comprehensive service to all its members, especially to our undergraduate Chapters, thus ensuring Psi Upsilon's continued stability and strength.

The following statistics and lists, which represent gifts received from July 1, 1984 through June 30, 1985 (gifts received subsequent to June 30 have been credited to 1985-86), serve to honor the faithful and supportive members of Psi Upsilon who, by their generosity, have enabled the Fraternity to continue on its distinguished course. The Executive Council is deeply and profoundly grateful for each measure of assistance, large and small.
